THE DELPHIAN

Published by the Delphian Staff of
Senior High School
New Philadelphia, Ohio
Volume XXXV

Foreword..

The years will pass . . . 1949 . . . 1959 . . . you will have gone on to the life that you have chosen . . . the New Philadelphia High School annual of future years will picture other faces and recall other events . . . but this, the 1948 Delphian, is your book . . . it sets down for you the events of "forever gone day," the good times that will be happy remembrances as the years pass . . .

We, the staff of the 1948 Delphian, appreciate the fine co-operation of the faculty and student body . . . this has been most helpful in our efforts to preserve for you the record of your senior, junior, or sophomore year at New Philadelphia High School . . .

We hope you will treasure this book . . . may you, wherever the years take you, find many pleasurable moments in turning its pages to look upon the friends of yesteryears, to recall your happy schoolday activities, and to stir anew your loyalty to your high school Alma Mater.

MISS STELLA E. RUTLEDGE

Because of her gentleness and her gracious spirit of wanting to help students in every possible way, Miss Rutledge is one of our most loved and popular teachers . . . she has room in her heart for every student who has been fortunate enough to know her as a friend and a teacher . . .

To bring honor to our loved ones is a great pleasure . . . and so, in appreciation of her ever kind and thoughtful efforts for the students of New Philadelphia High School, we, the staff of the 1948 Delphian, take pleasure in dedicating this thirty-fifth volume to Miss Rutledge.

Congratulations, Seniors, on completing your high school education. By so doing, you have advanced to that group who have more tools for tackling life's problems . . . The vocational guidance which the school has offered has been along lines of your apparent interests and aptitudes. In addition to those required courses in certain areas which are known to be fundamental in the lives of all citizens, you have elected certain courses. We hope you have chosen those courses which will be of most help to you . . .

We hope you leave high school, not only better equipped with working tools, but also with a desire to work on and share in the problems of your community, state, and nation. We hope you have gained some stability of purpose, and that you apply your efforts on positive goals rather than negative, destructive goals, or by neglect waste your talents . . .

We wish for you the best in life's experiences . . .

May we also express appreciation to you, Seniors, your Advisers, your Principal, and others who have assisted in making possible another edition of this Delphian, a fine annual.

DOROTHY ARNOLD
Secretary to Principal

Again, we have come to the close of another school year. Many things have happened since the opening day last September. What a pleasure it will be, in years to come, to reminisce these many activities as set forth in this Delphian . . .

I want to take this opportunity to congratulate Miss Barton and the Delphian Staff for another fine annual. We are greatly indebted to you for this contribution . . .

I also want to congratulate you seniors for successfully completing your high school education. I hope your education does not stop with graduation. Education is a continuous and expanding process, so that only a lifetime will consummate your plans. May you be successful and find much happiness in your life work.

The Play

One of America's most popular playwrights is Anne Coulter Martens "Make Yourself at Home" reveals Mrs. Marten's comprehensions of young people in zestful situations . . . The play takes place in the Ward home. Mary wants her sister and brother to have a happy home. Aunt Lavinia, their guardian, feels Mary is too young and too busy with her secretarial position to have charge of Janie and Jimmy. Aunt Lavinia is sure of this in that Jimmy has a tendency to slouch and Janie crosses her legs . . .

Mary thinks marriage is the only solution to this problem. Then she can establish a happy home in which the twins may continue to live a jolly life with their cats, goldfish, parrot, and pig. But when Eustace, the clothes-pin manufacturer, finally proposes, Mary has lost interest in him. There is a man, Mike, who has come into her life under very strange circumstances. He has been suspected as a jewel thief, yes, and even a kiss thief; but yet he wins Mary's heart and Aunt Lavinia's approval . . .

The other characters who are interwoven in the Ward vicissitudes are flirtatious Minette; giggling Gail; a conscientious secretary, Tyler; and a good-natured Irish cop.

Seeing the 1948-ers in 1958

And when we look ten years ahead,
We find some things that ought to be said
About Forty-eighters that we see
Doing things we hardly thought they'd be.

September, 1958 . . .

When the students return to school this fall, they enter the new high school building on Second Street, N. W., started for them eighteen years ago . . .

The building features a 30x60 swimming pool, a gymnasium which seats twelve thousand people, an auditorium in which twenty thousand persons can be seated to hear and see, air conditioning, atomic heating units, elevators, a roof garden, unremovable plumbing and furniture hardware, unmarkable walls, new desks with no markings on them in all the rooms, and race tracks between class rooms and cafeteria, built to develop running stars . . .

The effectiveness of Dr. Floyd Hachtel's new sound proofing material will be tested. Its installation in the Industrial Arts class room is expected to make concentration possible in other class rooms . . .

Principal James Maholm requests that students do not fly their autogyros too low over the roof garden when coming in for a landing . . .

Leah Halderman, who got some of her training in study hall in her high school days, pilots an airplane taxi for commuters . . .

James Hart has succeeded in becoming the first male librarian of Senior High School. Consequently the number of girls in the library will probably out number the boys . . . Miss Virginia Bichsel is teaching astronomy. If we remember correctly, she always had been a "star" gazer . . .

Professors Battershell and Moore, on leave from Carnegie Institute of Technology, have been granted a year's use of the research laboratory for the purpose of putting the split atom back together . . .

Mr. Herman Behling will soon start to take the 1958 Delphian pictures. His studio motto is "Behling for Better Baby Photos" . . .

Miss Carol Moore has opened her home to high school teachers who wish to join her in becoming old maids . . .

Mr. Eddie Carothers is head of the Mathematics Department. He's a "whiz" with figures in general, now; when he was a student in high school, one little figure was his secret ambition . . .

The eminent head of the United States Research Bureau and designer of the modern explosive-proof laboratory, Mr. William Patrick, has offered to proof the high school chemistry lab. This is his gesture of appreciation for the many narrow escapes he had in 1948 when he was a novice in the science of chemistry . . .

Mr. John Mutti makes weekly trips back to his Alma Mater to conduct classes in pig-calling. Since his debut in 1948 in the class play, "Make Yourself at Home," he is one of the most popular artists on the "Grand Ole Oprey" program over radio station WWVA. He says there's nothing like a special talent, be what it may, to help one to fame and fortune . . .

School authorities are putting their stamp of approval on the Beddows' Restaurant and Confectionery, now located on the other side of the railroad track. They approve of the healthful cooking of the Misses Norma Jarvis and Naomi Lawrence, who always could sling the hash, and the good behavior, enforced by the muscled bouncers, Martin, Menapace, and Sherer, who also furnish entertainment as a vocal trio. The students' favorite selection is "Baldy Beddows' Beanery" . . .

Many of the outstanding assembly programs in 1958 will be furnished by successful 1948-ers . . .

A style show will be put on by Mr. William Beebe, recently declared the best dressed gentleman in New York. Mr. Beebe now owns and operates a clothing store in Harlem. As far back as 1948 Bill had a love for color, so his ability to satisfy the Harlemites with his "pokey" dots, checks, and stripes is no surprise . . .

A lecture by the prominent social worker, Miss Jo Ann Tracy, will be the climax of the guidance program arranged by the faculty. Her subject will be "My High School Daze." . . .

The English Department will present Miss Mary Wright, President of the World League for Conservation of the English Language. She is the world's outstanding believer in deep silence . . .

The President of the United States, Honorable Bruce Jackson, will address the high school on "The Dignity of Labor." The class of 1948's illustrious son gets his exercise mowing the White House lawn, an activity he learned to love when he lived on the New Philadelphia Seven Mile Drive . . .

Mr. Dominic Liberatore will introduce his Honor, the President, and former class mate. He will take this opportunity to launch his entry into politics by speaking on "What Others Can Do, I Can Do."

Predictions can be wrong; predictions can be right
Although your future is really out of sight,
These predictions could be what is to come.
We hope we haven't offended some.

The Senior Class Will

Be it known to all whom it may concern that we, the Seniors of 1948, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath and forever relinquish the following prized possessions and traits to be divided among the heirs hereby named:

Article I—To the girls of the class of "49", Romeo Starinieri leaves his love for all of them.

Article II—Gene McMath leaves—for Curly's.

Article III—To Pat Gershel, Gladys Ginnetti leaves her quietness and demure ways.

Article IV—The Senior Science Class leaves Miss Helmick (in a dither).

Article V—Bill Wright leaves some of his height to Paul Graff, who promises to grow up someday.

Article VI—Bill Beebe leaves! Ain't that enough?

Article VII—Pat Fait leaves—the rest to Fate.

Article VIII—The basketball team leaves its record to next year's squad (who doesn't want it).

Article IX—Bill Bichsel leaves—he hopes!

Article X—Ted Demattio leaves his "ill health" to Fred Mamarella, who doesn't need it.

Article XI—The Senior Class leaves its brains (?) to the Junior and Sophomore Classes, who need them, (so the seniors say).

Article XII—Virginia Bichsel leaves, but says she is sorry to rush away.

Article XIII—Itty-bitty Paula Aldridge leaves her baby talk talent to "itty-bitty" Marian Frazier.

Article XIV—Shirley Carson leaves her questionable driving ability to Margaret Alexander.

Article XV—To any tired soul, Barbara Jones leaves her vim, vigor, and vitality.

Article XVI—Peggy Beckwith leaves her privilege of taking all the competitive examinations to William Barbee. Have a good time, Bill!

Article XVII—Janice Boyce leaves her tardy record to Pat Brady.

Article XVIII—Dave Cronebaugh leaves to NPHS a new Alma Mater song.

Article XIX—Frances Geib leaves her long list of romantic conquests to Helen Fischio.

Article XX—Dick Heim leaves his ability to disrupt German Class to Ralph Buterbaugh.

Article XXI—Earl Dummermuth leaves his morning bowl of "Wheaties" to Herbert Garritt.

Article XXII—Helen Schoelles leaves her ability to finish school before getting married to Jo Jacquette.

Article XXIII—Jim Stephens leaves his beard to Charles Campbell.

Article XXIV—Charles Stouffer leaves his seat in Mr. Bender's classes to anyone who wishes to spend the best part of his life there.

We do hereby appoint our worthy advisers, Miss Rutledge and Mr. Bender, as executors of this document to which we affix our seal of gratitude on this day of graduation, May twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and forty-eight.

Library Staff

These girls are under the efficient guidance of Miss Streb . . . they help the students by keeping the library in order . . . mending books, looking up references, reading the shelves, and running errands keep the girls busy . . . attractive, and gracious at all times, they serve others.

He ate and drank the precious words,
His spirit grew robust,
He knew no more that he was poor,
Or that his frame was dust.
He danced along the dingy ways,
And this bequest of wings
Was but a book. What liberty,
A loosened spirit brings!

 Assembly concert for Junior High School . . .
 Assembly concert for Senior High School.

One of the activities sponsored by the school this year was an attempt to secure an Alma Mater song . . . a contest was held and the chosen selection was composed by father and son, both graduates of New Philadelphia High School . . . the A cappella Choir had the privilege of presenting the Alma Mater as part of the robe dedication concert . . . David Cronebaugh, a senior and student choir director, composed the music . . . his father, Robert E. Cronebaugh, wrote the words.

PHILLY HIGH, ALL HAIL

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
 Hail to thee we sing,
 Hear thy loyal sons and daughters,
 Praise to thee they bring;
 Red and black your banner o'er us,
 Love for thee shall never fail,
 In the past and in the future,
 Philly High, all hail!

Orchestra

The Senior High Orchestra set out at the term's start to overcome their difficulties . . . one was a lack of adequate performers . . . another one was serious disorganization . . . still another was the necessity of gaining a foothold in a department which places emphasis on symphonic band rather than on orchestra . . . their activities during the year consisted of playing for Baccalaureate, Commencement, and the Senior Class Play.

Girls' Athletic Association

To be a member of this organization, the girls had to have good grades, practice good sportsmanship, and maintain active membership . . . the following activities were on their program for this year; in October, a Backwards Party—Barbara Phillips judged most backward . . . in November, the traditional Football Dance—Coach Kidd officiated at the crowning of the queen, Connie Tonkin . . . in December, a Christmas party—gift exchange and basketball game in the gym . . . noon-day dances welcomed the New Year and were continued very successfully throughout the year . . . Mother-Daughter Tea in February—nice, with short skits given by members . . . Spring Dance in March—lots of fun . . . Scavenger Hunt in April—was a howling sensation . . . May Day Dance—a gay affair with the lovely formals in the Maypole frolics.

N. P. FORMATION

Sports...

Coach Kinkade . . . Coach Kidd

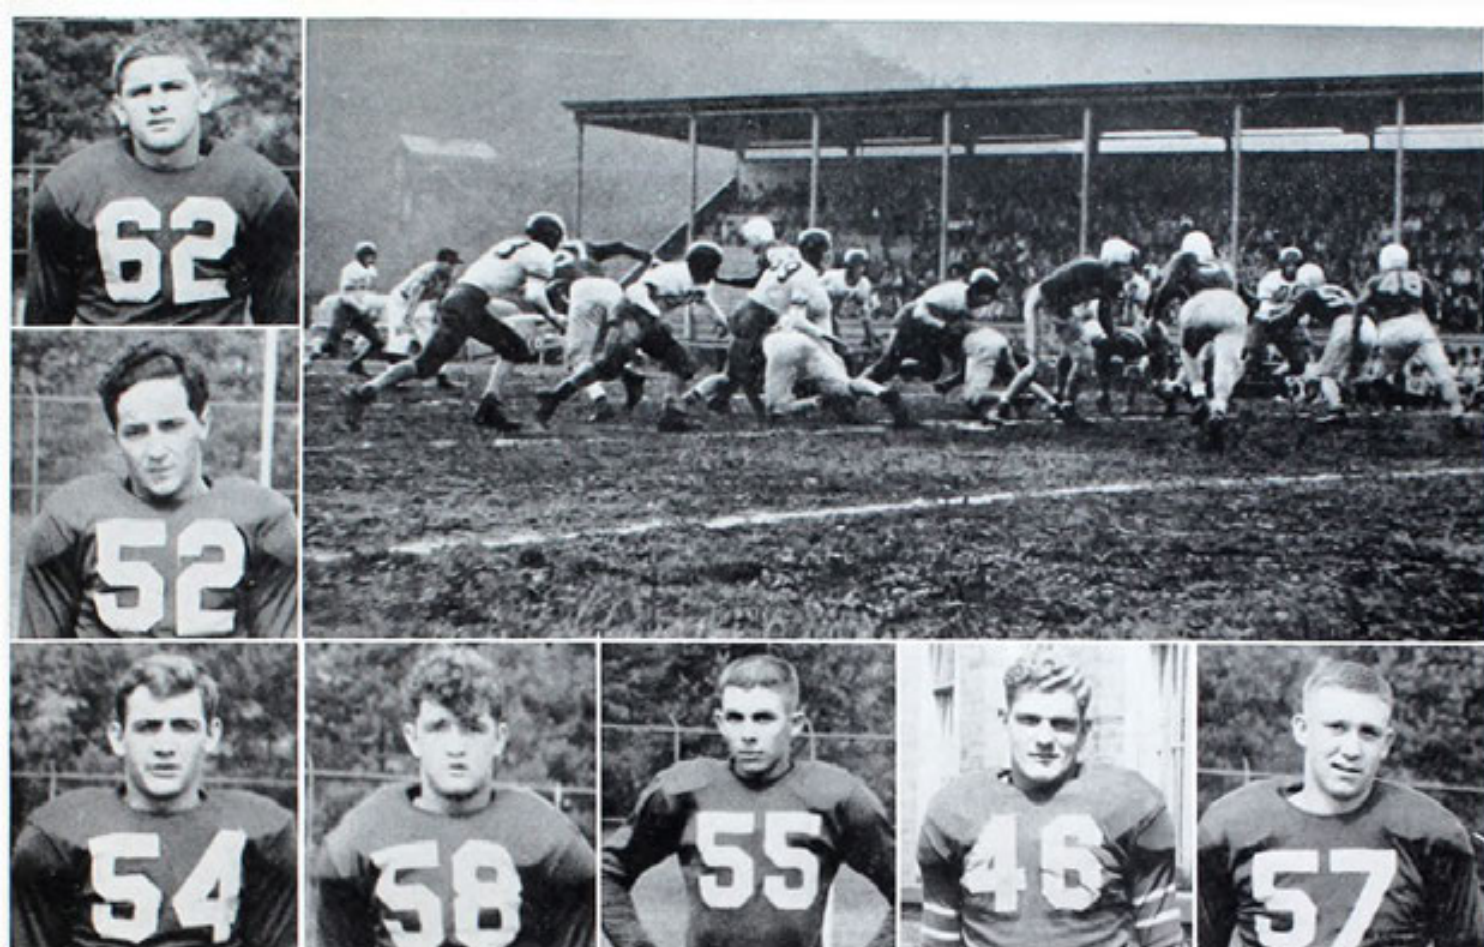

WILLIAM KIDD served this year as head football coach and assistant basketball coach . . . his football team won four, lost four, and tied one in a successful season.

THOMAS KINKADE served this year as head basketball coach and assistant football coach . . . although not winning many games, his team gained much experience for next year.

EUGENE MEESE 51
"Smoky" played line-backer and was in on nearly every play . . . Gene was a great competitor and was one of the mainstays of the line this year . . .

this was his senior year, and his absence will cause a great hole in our line . . . he was well liked by the squad; this they proved because they elected him honorary captain.

WILLIAM PATRICK 62

"Bill" was the brains behind our team this year . . . he played an excellent defensive game and got the Phils out of some dangerous spots with his magnificent punting.

ROMEO STARINIERI 52

Romeo's line play was outstanding—a worthy example of the saying that dynamite comes in small packages . . . he played a bang-up game at guard and added considerably to the Quaker line.

RICHARD MEESE 54

This was "Dick's" third year as a letterman . . . he was one of the mainstays of this year's squad, and his constant pep and enthusiasm will be greatly missed in next year's line up.

DAVID THOMAS 58

"Dave" was one of the few boys who played every quarter this year . . . he was always giving his best and was a powerful factor on our line . . . he was a real lover of football.

THEODORE DEMATTIO 55

"Ted" wasn't able to play until the Bellaire game; here he began to turn in brilliant performances . . . then he contracted tonsillitis and was unable to play again until the Lehman game when he came back and led the team to play their best game of the year.

RICHARD MARTIN 46

Since he was the heaviest man on the team, he was called "Humphrey" . . . his defensive play was up to par every game, but his outstanding performance was in the Canton Lehman game.

WILLIAM BICHSEL 57

This was the second year "Bill" made the first team . . . although he wasn't an outstanding player, he was a great help to our line . . . he was one of the heaviest men on the team and was always in there fighting.

JOHN BATES 61

Although only a sophomore, "Jack" earned his varsity letter this year . . . his determination and natural ability should earn him a starting position on next year's squad.

RICHARD DAY 48

"Pickle" earned his second letter this year . . . he was one of our hardest running backs and should be in top form next year . . . he was shifted from fullback to halfback and filled in very well.

JERRY PHILLIPS 49

"Pussy" was the lightest and fastest man on the team . . . groomed as a break-a-way runner, he played his first year in the backfield . . . Jerry deserves a lot of credit because he let his small stature be no hindrance.

GERALD HUMRIGHOUSE 39

This was "Jerry's" third year on the varsity . . . his lack of game experience gave him little chance to prove his worth . . . his loyalty to the squad was apparent, as he stuck it out for three years.

EUGENE McMATH 47

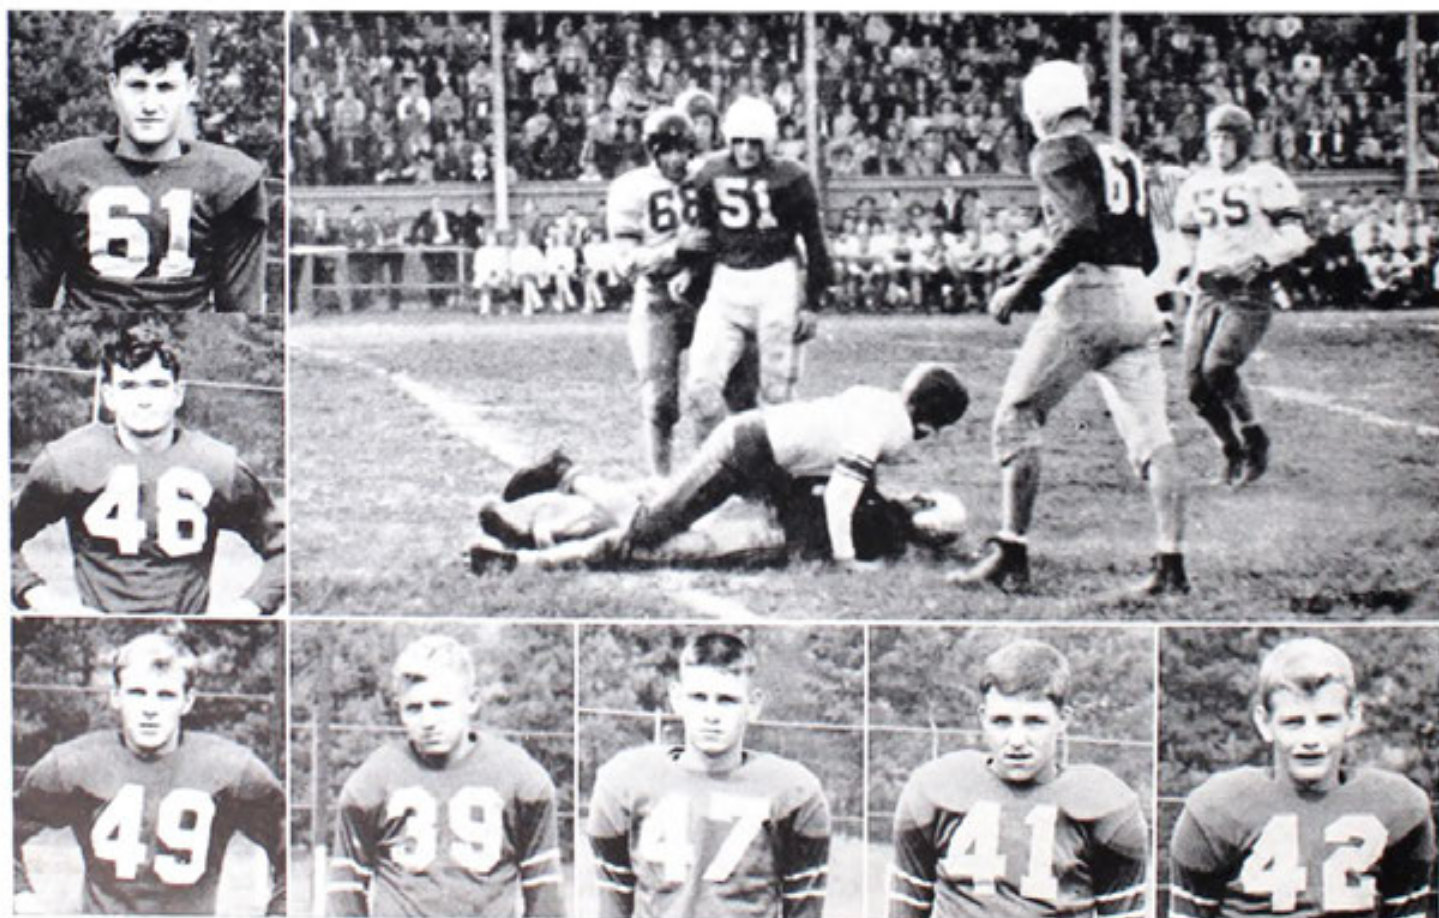

"Gene" was awarded a service letter this year . . . it's boys like "Gene" that make a good team . . . he always gave everything he had and was one of the best-liked boys on the team.

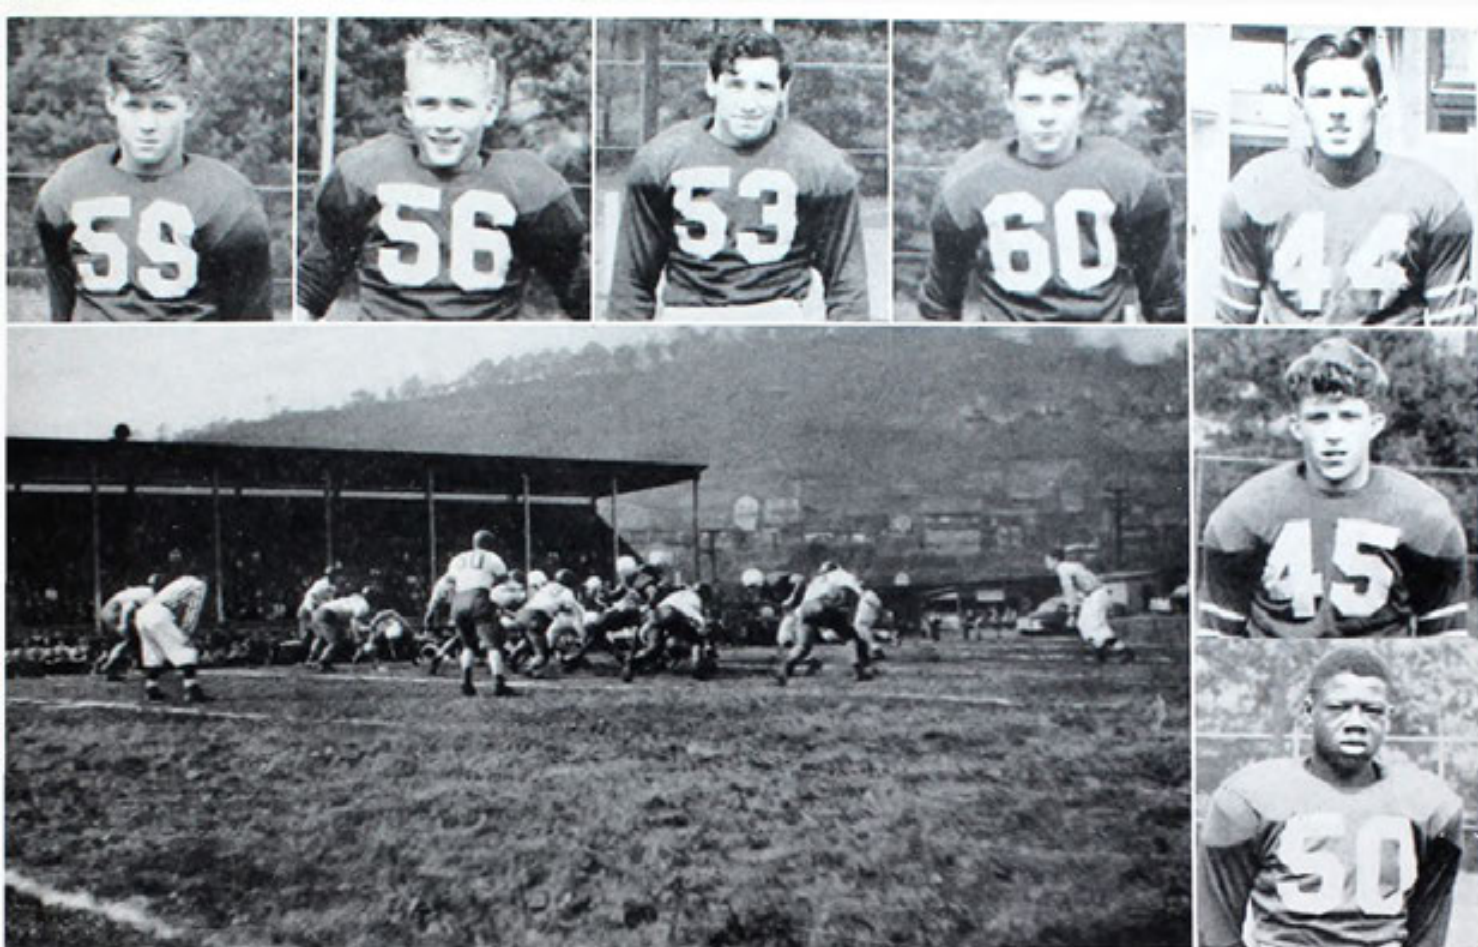

JAMES STEPHENS 41

"Jim," a senior, was awarded a service letter . . . although he didn't see much action this year, his never-say-die spirit on the practice field made the first team work harder.

EUGENE REYNOLDS 42

"Archie," a junior this year, was one of our rugged ends . . . he was a good pass receiver and very seldom let a pass that was in his reach go incomplete . . . he will be a great help to the Quakers next year.

JACK JACKSON 59

Because of his determination and aggressiveness, Jack earned his second varsity letter this year . . . he was at the "hot" end position and proved his worth by his vicious tackles.

DAVID RIGGLE 56

This was "Reverend's" second year on the starting eleven, and his fighting spirit will be missed by next year's squad . . . "Dave" was our "toe" this year, and he also turned in many bone-crushing tackles.

HERMAN MENAPACE 53

Herman, one of the fastest men on the team, was the sparkplug of the squad . . . this was his second year on the varsity, although he earned his first letter this year.

BRUCE JACKSON 60

Although benched early in the season with a shoulder injury, "Gunner" saw plenty of action in the last five games . . . his brilliant playing at defensive halfback strengthened the pass defense considerably.

RICHARD HUEBNER 44

This was "Duss'" first varsity-letter year . . . he had plenty of fight and alternated at the starting position . . . to earn a starting position at end this year proved that he was tough.

JAMES PRITZ 45

Due to an injury, in the middle of the season, "Jim" was benched for several games; but this did not stop him from earning his letter . . . he made the first touchdown of the year and followed it up with brilliant play until he was injured.

EARL HARBIN 50

Earl was one of the best defensive ends to show up on a "Philly" team for a long time . . . he always seemed to be able to get through the interference and to spill the opponent . . . his favorite pastime was blocking punts.

Schedule

QUAKERS DROP SHELBY IN SEASON OPENER 12-0

Opening the season with a bang, the exceptionally light Quakers showed much promise for the coming season . . . the outstanding backfield playing of Dick Meese and Jim Pritz, offset by the defensive playing of Earl Harbin, stopped Shelby cold . . . Shelby gained only one first down, this being the result of a fifteen yard penalty.

PHILS STOPPED BY MIGHTY REDSKINS 6-0

In the second start of the season the Quakers held Coshocton to a standstill in the first half . . . they got themselves out of a tough hole in the early moments of the game by holding Coshocton for downs on the ten yard line . . . the remainder of the first half was played in midfield . . . sparked by the playing of Kiste, who was changed from end to halfback, Coshocton took the opening kickoff for one long concentrated drive for the only touchdown . . . in the second half, the Redskins, a much heavier team, tore our line to shreds and made long gains at will . . . the Quakers were forced to play defensive ball the remainder of the game.

AKRON GARFIELD POSTPONED

Due to the "polio" epidemic in Akron, the game was postponed by action of the New Philadelphia City Board of Health.

QUAKERS UPSET EXPERIENCED POTTERS 7-0

Playing against a much heavier team, the Phils, in a hard fought battle, scored on a running pass from Dick Meese to Earl Harbin for the only score of the game . . . most of the contest was played on even terms with neither team gaining consistently . . . All-Ohio Guard Tommy Bell was outstanding for the Potters.

TROJANS' AERIAL ATTACK DOWNS QUAKERS 27-14

Living up to expectations, Canton Timken defeated the Quakers in a hard fought battle at Fawcett Stadium . . . three touchdowns resulted from passes to Polosky, giant Trojan end . . . the Phils out-distanced the Trojans on the ground, but the failure of their pass-defense was the deciding factor . . . outplaying the Trojans in the second half, the Phils scored on a sustained sixty-five yard march . . . a feature of the game was Patrick's beautiful seventy-three yard punt.

Schedule

QUAKERS SUBDUE NEW FOE 17-0

Due to the "polio" epidemic, the scheduled game with Akron Kenmore was postponed . . . Columbus Aquinis was chosen to substitute, and they proved to be an inferior team . . . the Phils played an excellent defensive game but lacked the necessary offensive punch, being in scoring position many times but failing to push the pigskin over.

PHILS GO HOG-WILD IN SECOND HALF TO WIN 33-0

Playing the only day game of the year, our team handed Bellaire its worst defeat of the twelve-year series . . . held to one touchdown, which was made in the final fifteen seconds of the first half, the Phils roared back to score almost at will in the second half . . . the Quaker defense was nearly perfect, holding Bellaire outside the twenty yard line and allowing them to gain a net of only five yards . . . the Phils were sparked by Ted Demattio.

UHRICHSVILLE'S INSPIRED TIGERS HOLD PHILS 0-0

"New Philly" Quakers, a three-touchdown favorite, were held to a scoreless tie in a hard fought ball game . . . the game was as close as the score indicated, Uhrichsville outgaining the Quakers by only one yard . . . it was a great moral victory for the Tigers, who were gunning for the Phils . . . the Quakers showed nothing of what they had at Bellaire . . . they were handicapped by the absence of Demattio and Pritz.

RUGGED LEHMAN SQUAD EDGES QUAKERS 13-12

Sparked by the playing of Ted Demattio, the Phils looked like a new team and completely reversed their showing against Uhrichsville . . . the game was played in a slow drizzle, but this failed to stop the Quakers . . . we outgained them and outplayed them, but their "toe" was just a little better than ours.

DOVER TAKES ADVANTAGE OF BREAKS TO DEFEAT PHILS 13-6

Taking advantage of a fumbled punt, Dover scored in the opening minutes of the second quarter; and the remainder of the quarter was played deep in Dover territory . . . after an exchange of punts, the Quakers drove deep in Crimson territory; and on the first play of the fourth quarter pushed it over . . . Dover, aided by an "unnecessary roughness" penalty, scored in the last few minutes of the quarter.

Cheerleaders

Pep, the ever elusive symbol of school spirit, was managed well by the cheerleaders this year . . . the two new sophomore cheerleaders, Jackie Kinsey and Peggy Brogne, were selected by the student body . . . among the duties of this group was planning pep rallies, including the big assembly before the New Philly-Dover game.

With a P, with an H,
With an I-L-A,
That's the way you spell it!
Here's the way you yell it!
Philly! Philly! High!

QUAKERS LOST THRILLER 39-37

Using a man-to-man defense for the first time in many years, the Quakers succeeded in stopping Cambridge from the field but were beaten by four points. . . . Dick Meese was high with 9 points.

QUAKERS FOLD IN SECOND HALF 53-40

After taking a 10 point lead in the first half, the Quakers helplessly watched it fade and Dennis pulled ahead. . . . it was the first time Dennis had beaten "Philly" in her own gym.

YEA, WE WON! 69-55

Showing improved ball-handling and much better balance, the Phils pulled way out in front and were never threatened by Wellsville. . . . Huebner led the scoring with 23 points.

QUAKERS RAPPED BY AKRON GARFIELD 69-41

Overpowered by a strong Akron Garfield quintet, the Quakers lost and Garfield won its fifth straight game. . . . the Akron team was led by Negray with 23 points while the Quakers were led by Cargnel with 14 points.

CRIMSONS WIN NINTH STRAIGHT OVER QUAKERS 43-28

Spurting in the second half, after the Quakers had lost two of their star players, the Dover High Crimson won their ninth cage victory in a row over the Quakers. . . . Hall, with 12 points, led Dover; Trimmer was high for the Quakers with 9.

BENEDICTINE DRUBS PHILS 45-22

Unable to sink their shots on the large floor of the Bengals, the Quakers lost their fifth game in six starts. . . . Cleveland took an easy lead and were never headed. . . . Bates led the Quakers' scoring with 7 points.

MANSFIELD TROUNCES QUAKERS 67-36

The Quakers, who were badly outsized, lost their sixth cage game in seven starts. . . . the game was a high scoring game, with Mansfield doing most of the scoring. . . . Gagich led Mansfield's scoring with 23 points; Cargnel collected 10 points.

QUAKERS EDGED IN FINAL SECONDS BY AKRON HOWER 43-42

Looking like a ball team for the first time in weeks, the Phils were beaten by a foul shot with only 15 seconds to go. . . . the Quakers were led by Bates and Eichel with 10 points apiece.

PHILS BEATEN BY POTTERS 47-26

The Potters, led by Jack Betts, who scored 17 points and performed well under the backboards, racked up score at will to double the count. . . . the Quakers were led by Bates with 7 points.

UHRICHSVILLE QUINTET STOPS QUAKERS 55-43

The Tigers, led by Miller with 27 points, were too much for the inexperienced Phils. . . . the Quakers, who played the Tigers to a standstill the second half, played one of their best games of the year. . . . Trimmer and Huebner had 16 points each for the Quakers.

HOT MASSILLON TIGERS DEFEAT

PHILS 62-43

Taking good use of their home-floor advantage, the Phils opened up with a 3-0 lead but fell behind at the end of the first period 13-10 . . . the Phils cut Massillon's lead to 44-43 at one stage in the final period before the Tigers turned on a burst of speed to chill the threat . . . Huebner was high for the Quakers with 17 points.

WOOSTER'S RALLY STOPS

QUAKERS 55-37

The Phils had a nine point margin in the third period and were zooming along, when three Quakers hit the showers in quick order . . . Wooster then started rolling, and, as the game ended, were still rolling away . . . Meese and Grages were high for Philly with 10 each.

QUAKERS LOSE AGAIN 52-34

After playing fair ball and leading 22-20 at halftime, the Quakers slumped badly and lost to Cambridge by 18 points . . . little Kenny Grages sank seven action shots and three fouls to lead the Quakers.

QUAKERS' RALLY FALLS SHORT OF VICTORY 38-35

After trailing 15-0 the first quarter, the Quakers completely outplayed the stymied Crimsons in the second half to lose by 3 points.

TOWERING TOWNSHIP SWAMPS PHILS 52-32

Playing one of the best teams in the state, the Phils were completely outclassed . . . although the Quakers outscored Canton in two periods, the tall Wildcats controlled the game . . . Canton's Robert Baker was high scorer of the game with 15 points.

TIGERS' SECOND PERIOD SPLURGE DEFEATS PHILS 63-49

Although Philly was behind only four points at the end of the first period, Uhrichsville's second period rally dropped the Quakers into a sixteen point defeat . . . the Quakers never got back into the game . . . Huebner was hot to take scoring honors with 22 points.

PHILS LOSE SEVENTEENTH 53-46

Leading by eight points at halftime, the Phils fell into a slump in the third period to lose by seven points . . . Don Cable, veteran Dennison player, scored 28 points, while Trimmer and Grages had 13 each for the Quakers.

QUAKERS LOSE CLOSE ONE 44-43

After losing a six point lead in the last quarter, the Quakers rallied in the final minute, only to be denied a win over Wooster by the final buzzer . . . Grages again led the Phils with 14 points.

BARNESVILLE TRIPS PHILS 45-43

Playing a fine game the first three quarters, the Phils fell into a slump to lose to Barnesville in the final stanza . . . Trimmer was high with 14 points.

QUAKERS LOSE FIRST START IN TOURNAMENT 56-35

After scoring only 11 points in the first half, the Phils came back to play fair ball the second canto . . . Coshocton, the Quakers' opponent, went on in the district tournament . . . Huebner was high for the Phils with 13 points.

JOHN TRIMMER — 8

"Jack," a high-scoring junior, compiled the second highest record of points for the year . . . his favorite shot was a one-handed push-shot from any spot on the floor . . . his defensive work was something to be feared.

GENE CARGNEL — 4

Gene had that "Old Burning Desire" for basketball . . . he earned a starting berth early in the season, but his lack of height kept him from holding down his starting position . . . his one-hand shots from the center will make him very valuable to next year's squad.

RICHARD HUEBNER — 7

"Duss," although only a junior, was high scorer for the year . . . his ability to score from any position will make him a valuable asset to next year's squad . . . the team appreciated his fine spirit and (funny?) jokes.

EUGENE MEESE — 11

"Cap," the only senior left on the squad, turned in many fine games this season . . . he worked hard at all times, and kept up the team's morale . . . he was the roughest man on the squad; and, as a result, he retired before the end of the season.

KENNETH GRAGES — 3

"The Eye," as Kenny was called, earned his first varsity letter this year . . . he had the best shooting eye of any member of the squad . . . many teams will remember his long shots from the center of the floor.

EDWARD ECKFELD — 5

"Ed," a sophomore, earned his first letter this year . . . he alternated with Huebner in the pivot spot, and his left-handed shots were a threat to all Quaker opponents . . . we expect many things from "Ed" next year.

JAMES EICHEL — 9

"Bones," one of the hardest working members on the squad, earned himself a starting position in several games . . . he had a technique that no one will ever copy.

JOHN BATES — 12

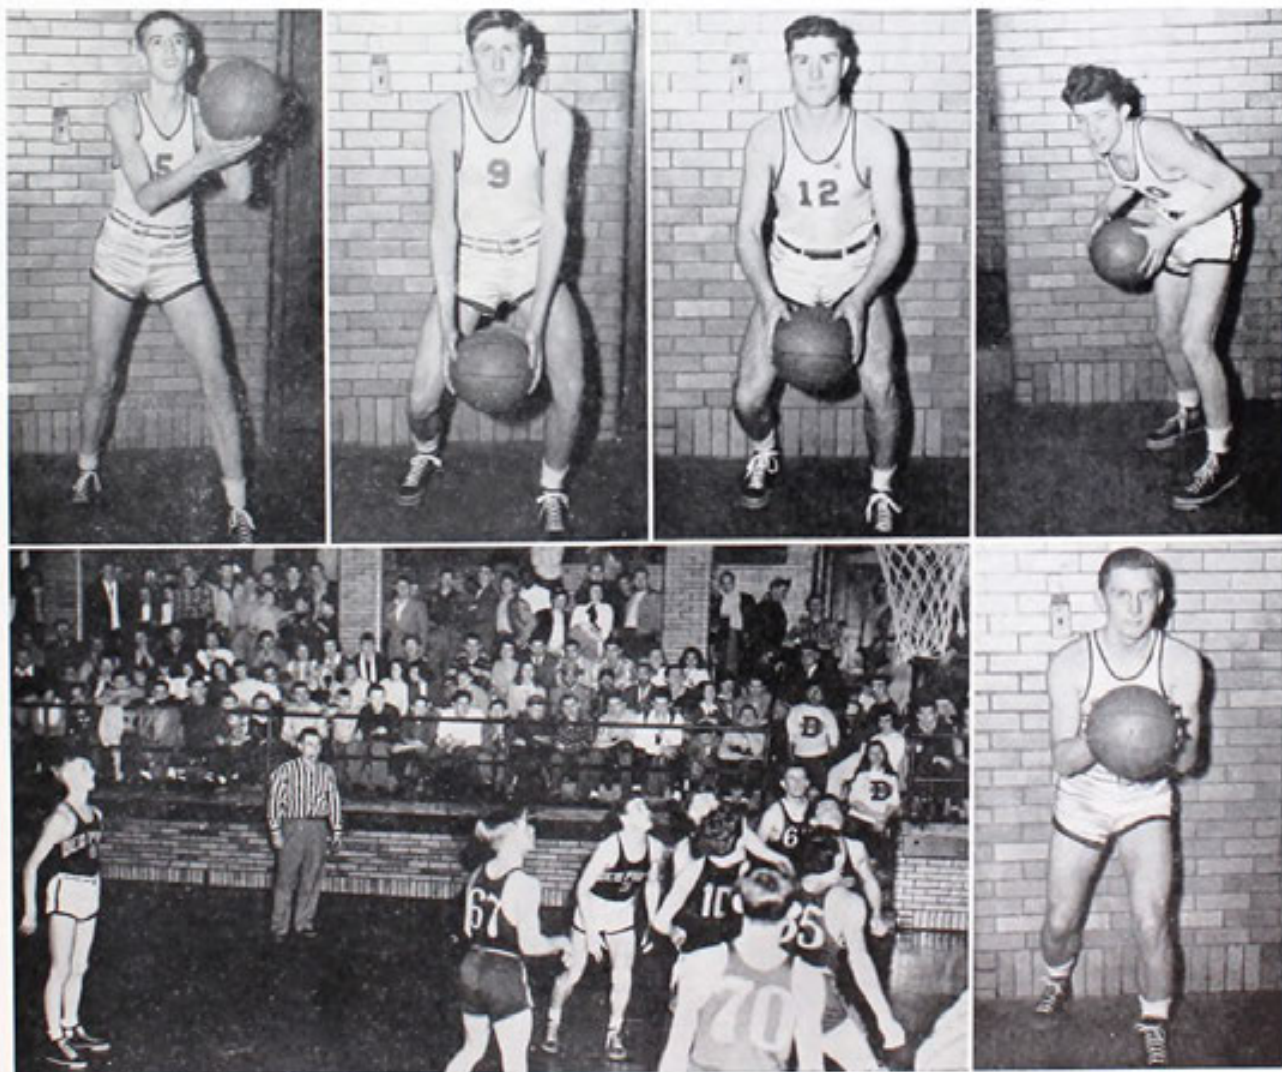

"Jack," a sophomore this year, held a starting position most of the season . . . he earned his letter by his good work under the backboards . . . his height will be very essential next year.

JAMES PRITZ — 10

"Jim," handicapped at the start of the season by a football injury, came back after a few games to turn in fine work as a forward . . . he was one of the taller members of our squad, and should add greatly to our next year's team.

ALLAN RODD — 6

"A. K.," a flashy guard, played many fine games this year . . . his long shots were a threat at all times . . . his game time this year gained him much experience for next year.
