Howard,

Now that our senior year is almost over, I can look back and think of all the fun we have had together. Most of our good times started in our freshman year when you were my campaign manager when I ran for president of the student council. Thanks to you, I made it. Remember? Things really lived up in our senior year, thanks to our third period talks every day. I will never forget chemistry and all our secluded talks.

You are a great guy, so keep up your winning way and I know you will receive your goals you are striving for, now and in college.

There is more fun to come, so best of luck to you always.

Coming Next Year

As these views of the various stages of construction indicate, our new addition containing vocational shops and gymnasium is expected to be in use during the 1959-60 school year. Thus we find nearing completion the program initiated with the passing of a $1,780,000 bond issue in 1955.

The board of education, the administration, and the members of the vocational and physical education departments are to be commended for their many arduous hours spent in planning and carrying through the construction.

Special commendation goes to the Timken Roller Bearing Company for its $150,000 grant for equipping the vocational shops, and to Supt. Force for his efforts in obtaining the grant.

Senior Division Student Council

The student body is governed by the student council. This council consists of a boy and a girl representative from each home room along with the four officers and Mr. Williams, the adviser. The council meets every Monday during the fourth period to discuss and solve the problems which confront it. In this way rules of parliamentary procedure and government are learned by the students participating.

Besides heading such activities as nomination and election of officers, the council has organized a group to boost school spirit which has proved to be very successful.

Social events were also sponsored. These included the annual Christmas Ball and the Homecoming Dance which were held in the Elks Ballroom. At the end of the year a dinner was given for all members of the council to celebrate a year well spent.

In New Philly High's very successful "Beat Dover" Parade, the student council entered this outstanding float which captured third place. Incidentally, the slogan proved itself to be quite accurate.

The Student Council was first organized in the junior high school in 1930 as an experiment in student participation in the affairs of the school. It has been an active organization ever since. It is now responsible for the entire co-curricular program of the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. It is a member of both the Ohio and National Associations of Student Councils.

The council is an organization of students, elected by students to serve as their representatives in matters of concern to the entire school. It represents everyone and speaks for everyone. It is the one organization offering membership and participation to all students, not just a select few. It gives boys and girls an opportunity to learn democracy by practicing it, to do the things now, while in school, which a good citizen will do later. It provides training IN citizenship rather than training FOR citizenship.

The council is not an administrative body. It is not a disciplinary body. It is student participation. The council works through a number of standing committees, which, this year, include assembly, athletic, civic, display case, homeroom program, noon-hour games, safety, hall guard, sales tax, school savings, scholarship and tabulating, and recording activity points earned by pupils at the end of each semester.

Some of the outstanding council projects this year were: a highly successful magazine drive; cooperating with the Senior Council in the selection of a football queen and attendants; acting as hosts for Open House; adoption of the pin of the National Association of Student Councils as the official pin for the New Philadelphia Student Council; putting into effect the Teen-Age Code, adopted last year; a sales tax record hop for the seventh, eighth, and ninth years; assisting in several drives such as the Community Fund, March of Dimes and Red Cross; a Washington's Birthday tea for the high school faculty; a new handbook; and a council banquet.

LEADERS CLUB

The Leaders Club is an organization of the vice-presidents from all the junior division homerooms. Janet Walters, the vice-president of the Junior Division Student Council heads the group and Mr. Keppler is the adviser.

The main job of the club is to prepare homeroom programs. They also discuss suggestions for the improvement of the school submitted by the students.

Another year gone by, another Delphian full of interesting and happy memories completed. The Delphian is the product of a year of hard work and study by the Delphian staff. This group of students works together as a team to bring you a book that lives up to all expectations.

Each senior on the staff is an editor or a manager of a department and each one has a junior for an assistant editor. The juniors will in turn become editors next year when they are seniors. The sophomore apprentices are chosen at the beginning of the second semester. Their main jobs are counting tax stamps and assisting the other staff members when they need help.

All these students are chosen on the basis of their ability, scholastic qualifications and willingness to accept responsibility.

The Central News

The Central News Staff is made up of a group of competent students who report the latest happenings at N. P. H. S. This news is printed in THE CENTRAL NEWS, our high school paper which is published tri-weekly. The staff also prepares the weekly QUAKER HIGHLIGHTS column for THE DAILY TIMES.

The Central News Staff holds an annual Christmas Party and joins with the Delphian Staff for a picnic in the spring.

The CENTRAL NEWS is a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and has won many awards in annual competition with other high school newspapers.

These girls play an important role in the production of THE CENTRAL NEWS. They type up the rough draft copies handed in by the reporters for THE CENTRAL NEWS. Then the girls cut stencils and mimeograph them. All this is then given to the Central News Staff to be assembled and distributed for sale to the student body.

Honor Club

The Honor Club is a goal toward which a student may work. To be eligible for membership in this club, a person must have two A's and two B's, three A's and two B's or better. Because of these high standards, the challenge of maintaining a high scholastic record is created.

If a student is on the honor roll five or six semesters, he becomes a life member which is a great honor. An active member is one who has been on the honor roll three or four semesters. Any student having good grades one or two semesters is an associate member.

At the end of the year during an honor assembly, life members are awarded gold pins furnished by the Board of Education.

The College Club again entertained the members of the Honor Club at a program to recognize good scholarship.

The only requirement for membership is that a student must carry at least two commercial subjects and have some interest in the field of business.

A dinner was given at the end of the year to honor the senior members of the club.

The Spanish Club was organized to promote interest in Spanish customs, language and life. International friendships are formed through this club. Many members have pen pals in the Spanish-speaking countries.

Guest speakers this year included a young man who informed the club about life in his native Spain. Another speaker had once lived in Puerto Rico. Mrs. Taylor, the club's adviser, told the students about her trip to Mexico.

At Christmas time, members were entertained at a pizza party with a Spanish motif.

All students in Mrs. Taylor's Spanish classes are welcome to join the Spanish Club.

The Y-Teens

The Y-Teens is a student organization affiliated with the Y. W. C. A. The purpose of the club is to join the members together in Christian ideals.

Many group activities were undertaken by the Y-Teens this year. At the beginning of school, a candlelight induction service was held for all new members. A dinner was held in the school cafeteria so that old and new members could get acquainted. During the Christmas season, the girls presented a beautiful pageant which is an annual affair. At the end of the year a Senior Farewell was given for the girls who were graduating.

This club invites all girls in the senior, junior and sophomore classes to join.

The officers of the club and their adviser, Mrs. Carroll, compose the Y-Teens Cabinet. This group meets to discuss and plan the year's activities.

Students of N. P. H. S., do you want to make teaching your career? If you are undecided, join the Future Teachers of America. This club is devoted to giving its members a taste of teaching. They have the opportunity to substitute for high school teachers when they are absent from classes. This is good experience to show the members what a teacher tolerates and what they must produce. All seniors picked a grade school and class that they wished to visit. During this visit, the high school students were given the chance to observe classroom techniques. The time spent observing was time well spent.

Speakers from all fields of education spoke to the club. Among these guests was Mr. Force, our superintendent. Also speaking was an N. P. H. S. graduate who is now studying to be an elementary teacher.

Future Teachers of America must maintain a "C" average throughout the year.

The organization was very active socially, too. It entered a fine float in the "Beat Dover" parade. A pizza party was held in the cafeteria and a farewell dinner for the seniors was enjoyed in the spring.

Although the Future Nurses Club is not very old, it has proved to be a huge success. Its aim is to encourage and enlighten students about the fundamentals and requirements for nursing. The club helps many girls decide whether or not they would like to go into nursing as a career either as a professional or a practical nurse.

Each period of the day a senior F. N. A. member is in attendance in the dispensary. She is there to help all students who are ill, and administer minor first-aid. There is a junior member stationed in senior division.

This year a committee was appointed to redecorate the dispensary. The results were very attractive.

Several student nurses and a registered nurse spoke at the meetings. Field trips were undertaken to hospitals in Akron and Cleveland.

Membership in the Future Nurses Club is offered to all junior and senior girls.

A Senior Salute in the form of a picnic was held at the end of the year.

Girls Athletic Association

Any sophomore, junior or senior girl interested in sports may join this club. The G.A.A. tries to develop good sportsmanship and fair play in all phases of life. The girls participate in various sports to collect points. There are quotas to be reached and those who have the highest number of points receive an award at the end of the year.

This year, the members have had several swimming parties.

Bowling has been a very popular activity with the girls during the year. A bowling league was formed and games were played at a local bowling alley. The results have been very favorable.

Pizza parties were also enjoyed by all the club. At the end of the year a dinner was given for the seniors.

This club provides opportunities for those students from the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades to show their abilities to stress their arguments on a subject. Our Debate Team met with four other schools: namely, Canton McKinley, Canton Lincoln, Massillon and Sandy Valley. Their record for the season was eight victories and six losses. The question on which these people debated was, "Resolved: That the United States should adopt the British system of education."

Hildegard is desperately trying to attract some eligible senior, for she has no date for the big school dance. She wins the school debate with an impassioned plea against drinking, but merely convinces everyone that her father drinks. As Hildegard appeals to her mother for help, the phone starts ringing, with women friends proffering sympathy. Despite Mother's indignation, she's moved by Hildegard's fear that if she misses this one prom, she's destined for spinsterhood. When the other girls start to lord it over Hildegard, Mother takes action. She knows a nice boy who'd love to take Hildegard. She'll arrange it all! Hildegard is in ecstasy and though she doesn't know the boy's name, she lays it on thick — until the prospective date sounds like a Hollywood star. Poor Hildegard! Her mother has picked the one boy in school who wears knickers! He's a swell guy, but those short pants make him the joke of the school. In a screamingly funny scene, Hildegard learns the truth and pleads to break the date, but Father is mad, for everyone is convinced now that he's a great drinker. Furthermore, Freddie's the son of Father's boss. To make matters worse, it develops that Hildegard has given a child some envelopes to play mailman with which get distributed to all the neighbors. They turn out to be her father's old love letters to her mother! Now Hildegard's in despair. The whole school will die laughing at her and Freddie. She buys Beauty Mud in hopes that her new beauty will cause a stag-line stampede. Meanwhile, Father, worried about his job, invites his boss home to prove how sensible his family is. But Hildegard, her face smeared with beauty clay, dashes screaming into the room. The boss is stunned. Then his son, Freddie, bursts in wearing long pants with Hildegard's brother chasing him crying "Steal my pants, will you?" He tackles Father's boss by mistake! It looks like the end of everything. But in a whirlwind finish that leaves the audience chuckling the happy solution to all the problems is reached.

Football

WILLIAM KIDD—Completing his eleventh year as head football coach, Coach Kidd led his team through another hard year of rugged football. Under his coaching and guidance, the team members realized that, in interscholastic competition, winning games is not the only thing stressed, but that sportsmanship and desire are also underlying factors.

Mr. Kidd is also Athletic Director and golf coach here.

WILLIAM BIRD—Completing his second year as assistant football coach, Coach Bird is also head track coach, wrestling coach, and coach of the eighth grade basketball team. Showing excellent coaching ability, Mr. Bird worked with and developed our rough line on the football team.

ROGER BISHOP—Returning to N.P.H.S. after a year's leave of absence, Coach Bishop resumed his duties as assistant football coach and reserve basketball coach. At football practice, he is in charge of the reserve team and he also scouts other teams. He worked hard for the betterment of our team.

JERRY REDMAN—"Bones"—a senior tackle whose fierce tackles stopped many long gains before they got started. Excellent on defense.

JOE FRENZEL—"Rex"—a senior guard and tackle who excelled on defense and played to win. He was voted All-Quaker and received All-Ohio honorable mention by U. P. I.

BILL WADE—a junior center who was new this year, but excelled at his position. He was very rough on offense as well as on defense.

BOB EVANS—a junior end who was valuable on defense. Many long runs were stopped by him.

CLIFF HEUSCHKELL—assistant trainer.

TERRY GRIBBLE—a junior fullback who kept the team moving whenever it slowed up. He was an excellent runner and will be a great asset to next year's team.

See How

N. P. H. S. 6

JACKSON MEMORIAL 16

Jackson's Polar Bears started the Quakers' football season with our first opening game defeat in seventeen years.

The Polar Bears took advantage of the Quakers' early weak defense to pull out the brilliant victory.

A 74-yard kick-off return by Fabiano provided Phila's only tally.

N. P. H. S. 0

CANTON TIMKEN 6

Sudden defeat struck the Quakers only two minutes away from what seemed to be a scoreless game with the highly favored Canton Timken Trojans.

Although the Quakers were fast improving they suffered their first shutout and second defeat.

N. P. H. S. 6

EAST LIVERPOOL 16

The third defeat of the Quakers was incurred at the hands of a quick East Liverpool Potter team.

The team showed considerably improvement over the previous two games, barely missing numerous scoring opportunities through several fumbles.

Our score was made by Jim Renner after recovering a fumble on the 38-yard line.

N. P. H. S. 16

WOOSTER 8

The Quakers exploded for a first-half power play game which flattened the Wooster Generals.

This was the first victory for us in the current five game series and the first victory of the year for the Quakers.

Our scoring was done by Metzger and Gribble along with two good two-point conversions.

N. P. H. S. 14

ASHLAND 6

Bruising runs combined with a surprising long pass by Renner enabled the spirited Quakers to easily handle the Ashland Arrows in posting their second straight victory.

The players continued to show a vast improvement since the loss of their first three games, and they won 14-6.

A long run by Eichel and a pass to Massarelli made up the tally for Phila.

Eichel running with Fabiano and Gribble blocking.

Duda scores against Dover.

Good tackle jars ball loose, Redman gets ready to recover.

They Play

N. P. H. S. 0

CANTON LINCOLN 46

The New Phila Quakers, after a great comeback and two straight wins, were crushed by the highly rated Canton Lincoln Lions in a 46-0 shutout.

The defeat was the worst experienced by the Quakers in seventeen years.

N. P. H. S. 0

BELLAIRE 10

Six fumbles ruined for the Quakers what was otherwise an astonishing and valiant defensive comeback.

The Philly team dropped its fifth decision of the year to Bellaire's Big Red 10-0. But the invaders, slowed down to a slow grinding game after displaying nearly unstoppable offensive strength through four previous wins, took home their victory through a series of bad breaks for the Quakers.

N. P. H. S. 6

UHRICHSVILLE 6

Fumbles once more ruined chances of victory for the Quakers as they were battled to a 6-6 draw by a big scrappy Uhrichsville Tiger squad.

Terrific smooth rolling offensive power in the first quarter flashed the Quakers to a quick touchdown, but from there the Quaker attack was bogged by bobbled ball-carrying.

Gribble made the only touchdown for the Quakers.

N. P. H. S. 0

CUYAHOGA FALLS 19

Eleven fumbles again caused the Quakers to drop their sixth decision of the year to the Cuyahoga Falls Tigers 19-0. This was also the third shutout for the ill-fated Quaker football team.

N. P. H. S. 19

DOVER 6

The Quakers kept the "bat" for the third straight time and the tenth in the past eleven seasons with a brilliant comeback victory.

It was not an easy task but the Quakers came up with power plays and a surprising aerial attack in the second half to bring home a welcome victory over the favored Tornadoes.

This was the Quakers' thirty-first win in the fifty-three meetings of the two teams leaving only fifteen to the Tornadoes and sharing seven in ties.

Our impressive scoring was shared by Duda, Massarelli, and Eichel, the latter two catching passes.

Kneeling—Coach Leo Benjamin.

This year's basketball team is one of which we are all very proud.

Our regular season ended with a record of twelve wins and six losses. Then, led by strong desire, our boys captured the sectional tournament championship at Dennison. The fired-up Quakers then moved on to the District Tournament at New Concord and by defeating favored Steubenville, won that tournament. As one of only sixteen teams left in the state, the Eastern Ohio District champs moved into the Kent State regional tournament and there met Akron Central, fourth ranked in the state. Although playing one of their best games of the season, the Quakers were defeated by the second tallest team in Ohio.

This is one of the best teams in New Phila. for a number of years and it ended with a record of 17 wins and 7 losses. The team was lead in scoring by the three co-captains, Merle Clum, Dave Massarelli, and Jim Eichel.

LEO BENJAMIN—Leo Benjamin is head basketball coach as well as assistant football and track coach. The basketball team under his fine coaching proved to be one of the best teams to play for Philly in a number of years. Under his fine guidance they won the sectional and district tournaments before bowing out in the regionals. Coach Benjamin also proved his ability at football coaching, as he was in charge of the backfield of our football team.

ACROSS:

MERLE CLUM—senior center—co-captain—first team All-Ohio—UPI—highest scorer of the All-Ohio first team. One of the best ball players to come out of Phila. for several years. He was the second highest scorer in the school's history with 566 points and was the top scorer in Tuscarawas County Class AA with a 23.3 average. Also named to AP All-Ohio third team.

DAVE MASSARELLI—senior forward—co-captain—a fast, hard driving player who had a deadly one-hand set shot, especially from the corner. He was second highest scorer on the team with 378 points for a 15.7 average.

JIM EICHEL—senior guard—co-captain—a good ball handler and dribbler—had an excellent long set shot. He was invaluable against all-court presses in getting the ball across the ten-second line. He ended the season with 275 points averaging 11.4 points a game.

BOB EVANS—junior forward—a calm player, but scrappy. He helped the team a lot by his fine rebounding and shooting.

JERRY FISHER—junior guard—a smooth, reliable ball player who was always battling for the ball. A good defensive man.

DOWN:

JOE CUNNINGHAM—senior forward—developed a good jump shot and always played his best when called upon.

STEVE SEABROOK—junior guard—a top substitute who was a calm ball handler. A lot will be expected from him next year.

DICK TARULLI—junior guard—a small but scrappy player, he always came through when needed. A good shot from outside.

FRED ROLL—a junior guard—a fast good little play-maker. He is small but has a lot of potentiality.

N. P. H. S. 89

SECTIONAL TOURNAMENT AT DENNISON

DOVER 56

After losing at Dover twice in the season and five straight tournament games since 1939 the Quakers took revenge and defeated the Tornadoes. Although the Tornadoes were the top-seeded team, the high-spirited Quakers trailed only twice in the game and kept the lead throughout the entire last three quarters in the brilliant victory. Merle Clum was the high-point man of this game.

N. P. H. S. 60

CADIZ 66

Another revenge game was won by the Quakers when they downed the favored Cadiz Cardinals, who had a record of 18-1, after they had defeated us last year in the sectional tournament. The Quakers went ahead of the big Cadiz team and never trailed in the entire game. At the beginning of the game the Quakers potted eleven straight baskets before Cadiz knew what hit them. Again Merle Clum was high-point man, having 29 points.

N. P. H. S. 83

BARNESVILLE 63

The Cinderella kids as they were called, again beat their opposition as they defeated the Barnesville team and won for the first time since 1955 a title in the sectional tournament. Although the Shamrocks were ahead until midway in the third quarter the Quakers never gave up and came through to beat them. Merle Clum was high-point man, although the tally was generally shared among all.

N. P. H. S. 75

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT AT NEW CONCORD

CAMBRIDGE 46

The Quakers played a conservative game for the first time since the beginning of the tournament. Although it was slowly played, it was still enough to make the Bobcats bow to a defeat by seventeen points. Clum and Eichel shared the high-point position with Dave Massarelli coming in right behind.

N. P. H. S. 63

STEUBENVILLE 66

"They've done it again" was the cry heard all over Quakertown as the Quakers won their first District title since 1949. The Quakers won their big game at New Concord when they beat the Steubenville Big Red in an overtime game in which the Quakers never trailed. The Quakers went into this game calmly and well-balanced while the Big Red seemed somewhat overconfident. Because of their desire the Quakers beat them in our first overtime game of the season. The high-point man was Eichel and Clum was second in this hard game.

N. P. H. S. 74

REGIONAL TOURNAMENT AT KENT

AKRON CENTRAL 63

After reaching the regional tournament, the victorious Quakers were finally downed by a balanced team with an overwhelming height advantage. Bowing gallantly, the New Phila. team was praised for coming closer to Central than had any of their previous nineteen foes: Central had never before had less than a twelve-point margin. Merle Clum was high-point man for both squads with 21 points.

1958 Track

These hard working boys had a successful but not a winning season in that they held high to ideals to keep their bodies in the best of physical condition. This is as important as winning meets. They showed excellent sportmanship and we wish them a lot of luck for the coming season. Their overall record was no wins and six losses and they placed second in a triangular meet with Dover and Dennison.

Wrestling Team

A new sport was added to our fine athletics program this year and it has been greatly received. There are twelve weight divisions so that anyone can compete. The team, coached by Mr. Bird, had one match this year, but next year, the program will be in full swing and new uniforms have been purchased. The match was with the reserve team from North Canton, and was for the purpose of gaining experience. The squad also had an intrasquad match and it traveled to Kent State University to watch a wrestling match between Kent State and West Virginia University.

1958 Golf

Having only one returning letterman, the team under links mentor Coach Kidd lost all seven of its matches. In those contests, three-year letterman Joe Cunningham was medalist for five of the seven matches and also tied for third place in the district meet. The full team was back again this year.

Quaker

Hi, all you Quakers!

On September 3, 1958, old and new friends alike met to begin the new school year at ol' N.P.H.S. Everyone noticed the shiny floors which started us out right for the coming year. Already SOME anxious individuals were counting the days till the first vacation which was a Teacher's Meeting. Other days which gave us freedom from classrooms were: Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving, a Mid-semester Conference, Christmas vacation, Easter.

Noon-hour activities, directed by Miss Milar and Mr. Phillips, this past year, consisted of fifteen minute volleyball and basketball games. The teams were made up of members of homerooms who were interested. Also each Monday both divisions enjoyed dancing in the gym to music provided by the dance band. Our thanks to them for the fine rock an' roll music. This year a juke box was installed for our enjoyment at noon-hour. This juke box was presented by the Quaker Club who accepted it from the Dover Novelty Company. To keep the juke box supplied with the latest hits, the records were changed every two weeks.

Our Senior Division Student Council officers this year were: President, Joe Frenzel; Vice-President, Bob Fleming; Secretary, DeAnna Polka; Treasurer, Fred Roll. Representing the student body of Junior Division as Council officers were: President, Jim Mercer; Vice-President, Janet Walters; Secretary, Bonnie Voshall; Treasurer, Sue McIntire.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored an Atomic Energy exhibit which visited N.P.H.S. Mr. Philip Lamm, exhibit instructor stated: "The purpose of the exhibit is to help inform the public of the peacetime use of atomic energy."

Corners

To end our successful football season Joe Frenzel was elected All-Quaker. Joe played guard and tackle on offense and was a line-backer on defense.

If you were wondering what all the excitement was around Philly the latter part of November, it was the annual Sweater Hop sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y. All the gals grabbed guys and dragged them to the Y.M.C.A. where they danced to the music of records spun by Dick Reynolds.

On December 10 the Y-Teens, under the direction of Mrs. Marquerite Carroll, presented their annual Christmas International Pageant. The cast consisted of a narrator and approximately forty girls, dressed according to the different countries they represented, bringing gifts to the Savior. The A Cappella Choir provided the music during the performance.

This year, to emphasize the meaning of Christmas, a contest was announced for Junior Division homerooms. The following homerooms were the prize winners: First prize—Room 206, Second prize, Room 304, Third prize—Room 211. The theme of the winning homeroom was "The Littlest Angel."

To highlight the Christmas season the annual Christmas Dance, sponsored by the Senior Division Student Council, was held at the Elks on December 22. Music was supplied by none other than our very own dance band.

Judy Westbrook won the title of Betty Crocker's Future Homemaker of N.P.H.S. Our heartiest congratulations to you, Judy!

Both junior and senior choirs attended a choir workshop at Wooster High School on February 2. The primary purpose of the workshop was to improve the work of all choirs participating. Other choirs attending were from Wooster, Canton McKinley, Massillon and Dover. The guest conductor of the workshop was Mr. R. M. McCowen.

Quaker

The first big dance of the new year was the Snowball Formal. Although no snowballs were in sight, still the evening was a big success. Anyway, the fellows and gals were more interested in dancing to the music of Bob Randolph's Orchestra than the subject of snow.

The Midwinter Patron's Concert was presented in the high school auditorium on February 20. The concert band, orchestra and choirs provided the music on this program.

On March 16, campaign speeches were made by candidates for the student council offices. Elections were then held on March 19. The results of this election were: Kenny Metzger, President; John Murphy, Vice President; Nancy Bender, Secretary; Dave Mathias, Treasurer. The Junior Division election on March 19 produced the following winners: President, Jack Hurst; Assistant President, Bob Stein; Vice President, Elaine Kaserman; Assistant Vice President, Ellen Rich; Secretary, Marthasue Kidd; Assistant Secretary, Becky Niuman; Treasurer, Merrie Van Sickle; Assistant Treasurer, Marjorie Tolbert.

The magazine drive for the year 1959-1959 was a success with a grand total of $4603.62. The top salesgirl of the school was Margaret Hiller. Bill Sutton was the top salesman.

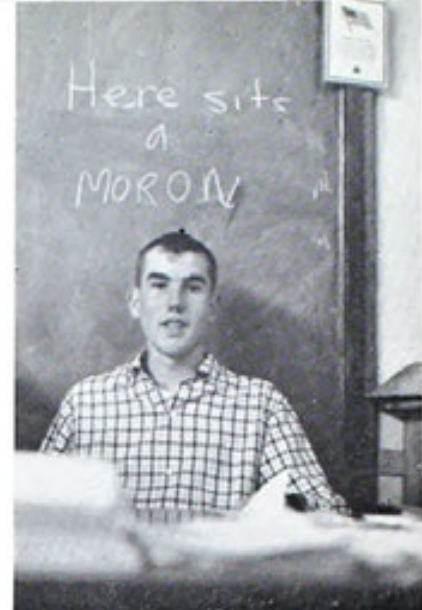

Leading the cheering section at our football and basketball games were our peppy cheerleaders: DeAnna Polka, Melanie Mears, Janice Russell, Madge Phillips, and Carol Gracik. Serving as Junior Division Cheerleaders were: Cinda Smith, Patty Jo Andreas, Bonnie Voshall, Jill Collins, Janet Walters, and Carol Heller. These girls deserve praise for the fine work in helping to make our sports seasons successful.

Our talented marching band, led by drum majors Eddie Wise and Dick Bichsel and directed by Mr. Hanson, should also be commended for its fine performances at halftime. Chosen as Quaker Girl was Becky Tucker who led our other performing majorettes: Judy Harris, Sally Jo Mathias, Carolyn Bailey, Karen Pfeiffer, Vicki Graff, and Sandy Winkler.

As usual, the big highlight of the football season was our clash with Dover. This long awaited game ended in victory for New Philadelphia with a score of 19-6. To create more interest in this game, classes, clubs, and other school organizations made and entered floats in the Beat-Dover Parade. Taking first place, out of the eleven floats that were entered in the contest, was the Sophomore Class. Second was G.A.A., and third was Senior Council.

The New Philadelphia Band Mothers sponsored a dinner and dance for the members of the band. The affair was held at the Country Club on March 17. After a dinner served to the band members, there was a dance to which each member was permitted to bring a guest.

The annual Tri-Hi-Y Spring Formal proved to be a tonic for individuals who were affected by that known as spring fever. The dance was held at the Elks Auditorium on the evening of April 4. At the dance we could see couples dreamily dancing among the stars and clouds which were placed about the room, creating the effect of a "Celestial Paradise."

Sunday June Murphy, Cheryl Leggett, Kaye Leggett, Queen Judy Parris, Peggy Smith, Lynda Lukens, Elaine Kaserman,

Homecoming Queen and her Court

October 3 was a date that seven girls, in particular, will never forget. This was the annual Homecoming game and dance. By popular vote Judy Parris was chosen to hold the honored position of queen for the 1958-1959 season. She was attended by Peggy Smith, Kay Leggett, Lynda Lukens, and Cheryl Leggett. Serving as pages were Sunday June Murphy and Elaine Kaserman. These girls were honored at the Ashland game and again at the dance held at the Elks.

At one of our interesting assemblies this year, we were privileged to be entertained by listening to an enjoyable concert given by the well-known violinist Rubinoff. He played various numbers on the violin accompanied by his pianist. At another assembly Mrs. Flora and Mrs. McKahan presented a piano concert.

This year's Junior Jamboree was presented in April. The theme of the production was "Mardi Gras". The advisers were Miss Helen Reddington and Mr. Edward Strazisar. The junior class wishes to thank its advisers for their cooperation and help which made the event a success. The committees and their chairman were: Theme, Sandy Force; Script, Jeff Teel; Program, Karen Stemple; Scenery, Jim Shea; Stage, Jim Marsh; Costumes, Johnalee Mizer; Make-up, Karen Sanders; Publicity, Dave Mathias. The student director was Carolyn Bailey. Chosen to be Master of Ceremonies was Bob Fleming.

May was a month full of fun, especially for the seniors. On May 1, a three act comedy, "We Shook the Family Tree", was presented. Then on May 26-27 the seniors had exams; May 27 was Class Day; May 31, Baccalaureate Services; June 1, the Senior Banquet. Finally, June 2 brought the long awaited Commencement Exercises. Seniors proudly donned their caps and gowns.

Howard -

To one of the greatest guys I know. You are really good natured and a lot of fun. Remember all the good times we had at the Youth Center. Remember the night (or should I say morning - 1:30 A.M.) that I took you, Frank, Jerry, and CLEM home from BJ's? Some fun, huh! Always stay as nice as you are now. I'm looking forward to pestering you next year in Columbus.
Best of luck in all you do.
