Are we nothing but a bunch of sheep?
 To be herded and grouped for three years?
 Regimented and driven like mindless animals?
 "Sit in the third row, second seat."
 "Take notes — memorize them."
 "Don't eat outside."
 "Now the average score for this test was . . ."
 "My 'A' students always . . ."
 There are no real individuals —
 Except the teacher's pet or the class dunce.
 There are always plenty of groups —
 So if one doesn't dare be an individual
 He can always get his identity
 From a bunch of other sheep.

Personal consciousness still exists . . .
Just as it has always existed —
By bare subsistence.

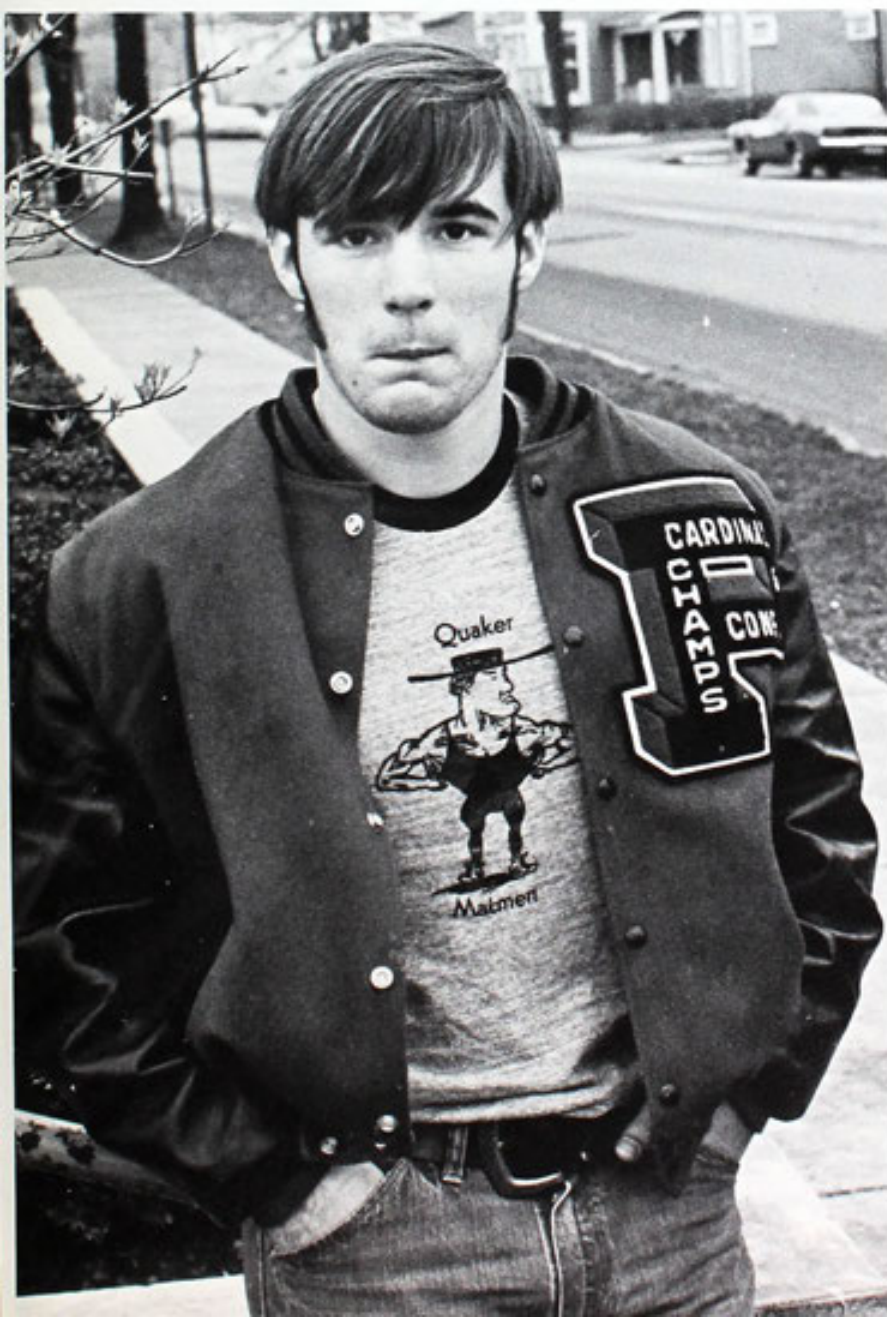

One sees very little real involvement here . . .
Sensitivity?
There's not much in New Philly.
Perception is just barely breathing.
There is no exploration,
No conquest,
Finally, no discovery.
And that's because there are no questions here —
Only answers, answers . . .

Why do we always sit in rows?
Why does the teacher stand in front?
For that matter, why do we sit at desks?
Neat, orderly little machines.
Five lines of brains, waiting to be filled —
Many times, merely with garbage.
(But that's beside the point.)
We will all function logically,
Undergo the learning process,
And come out on top.
The traditional classroom environment
Is too restrictive.

Does a person study better if she wears wool instead of denim?
Does a student's ability to learn decrease with the length of his hair?

It has been an often-quoted sentiment,
Or at least a holy ideal,
That a human being should not be judged
By his appearance —
But by what he accomplishes.
However,
Maintaining a dress code
Has nothing at all to do
With this belief.
Wrong.

Being plastic is what it's all about.
If there's no real thought,
There won't be any disturbance.
And if there's no revolt,
There will be no resolution.
Even if a resolution came,
It would be an answer to a problem
That never existed for most students.

Aren't "good students"
Really "good little girls and boys"
Who have learned to play their teachers' games?
They are "good students"
Because they abide by all the rules;
Because they do not break the mold;
Because they are afraid of the authority around them;
Because they mouth the prescribed answers.

Some are "bad students"
Because they don't play games;
Because they would rather argue —
Than memorize;
Because they ask for change right now;
Because they do not conform.
And they will not wait . . .

Education —
 the shaping of minds,
 the development of ideas.
 Yea, that's what they call knocking one down a letter grade for his opinion.
 Writing essays on a two word answer.
 Adjustment of a student's personality to fit what a teacher wants.
 Getting on the Honor Roll —
 Playing the right game with a teacher.
 Stuffy rooms all the way to a non-existent athletic program for girls.
 They say that school is supposed to make one a better citizen.
 That's funny — prisons are for exactly the same purpose.

Administration

Making decisions
For the betterment
Of the school,
Solving the problems
Of students and teachers alike,
Being responsible for hundreds
Of students as well as Faculty and non-academic employees —

This is the power structure —
Commonly called the administration.

Comprehending and solving a problem
Employing compass, protractor, or slide rule
Using formulas, theorems, and reason.
So much more than a few symbols
Scratched on a piece of paper.
Suddenly discovering the wonder
Of the world around us.
Understanding life's patterns —
A very thrilling experience.

Science Department

It's seeing a chicken embryo in a silent, prolific world within a shell.

It's discovering just why a fluorescent bulb emits light.

It's building an incubator or searching for a miracle vaccine.

The answer to the question "how,"
the moment at which a new idea is conceived.

Foreign Languages

Customs and culture —

Striking the pinata at a colorful Spanish fiesta;
being served by a slave at a
Roman banquet.

Communication —

Man's ideas expressed in sounds.

Mere words unite all men in understanding and brotherhood.

Distributive Education, Occupational Work Experience, Diversified Co-operative Training

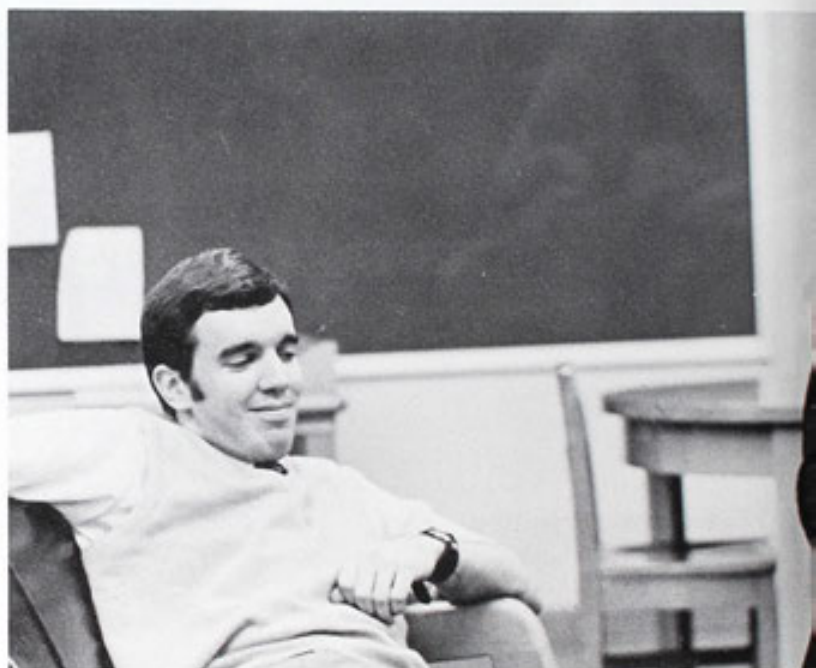

Pay checks, experience, and work —
Brownie points with an employer.
Banquets to commemorate the year's achievements —
Debbie Wood — the epitome of salesmanship.
Training future employers and employees
With on-the-job experience.

Psychology and Sociology

"I know that you believe you understand what you think I said, but I am not sure you realize that what you heard is not what I meant."

Psychology and Sociology —
A step toward understanding.

Health

Another ambiguous quiz,
 Another nickname for venereal disease,
 Another bandage to tie,
 Another sickening movie —
 Another girl faints,
 Another notch goes into the projector —
 Another day in health class.

Guidance

Which college should I go to?
 What classes should I take next year?
 Why can't I get along with my English teacher?
 Which college entrance
 exam should I take?
 Why aren't you there
 when I need you?

Library

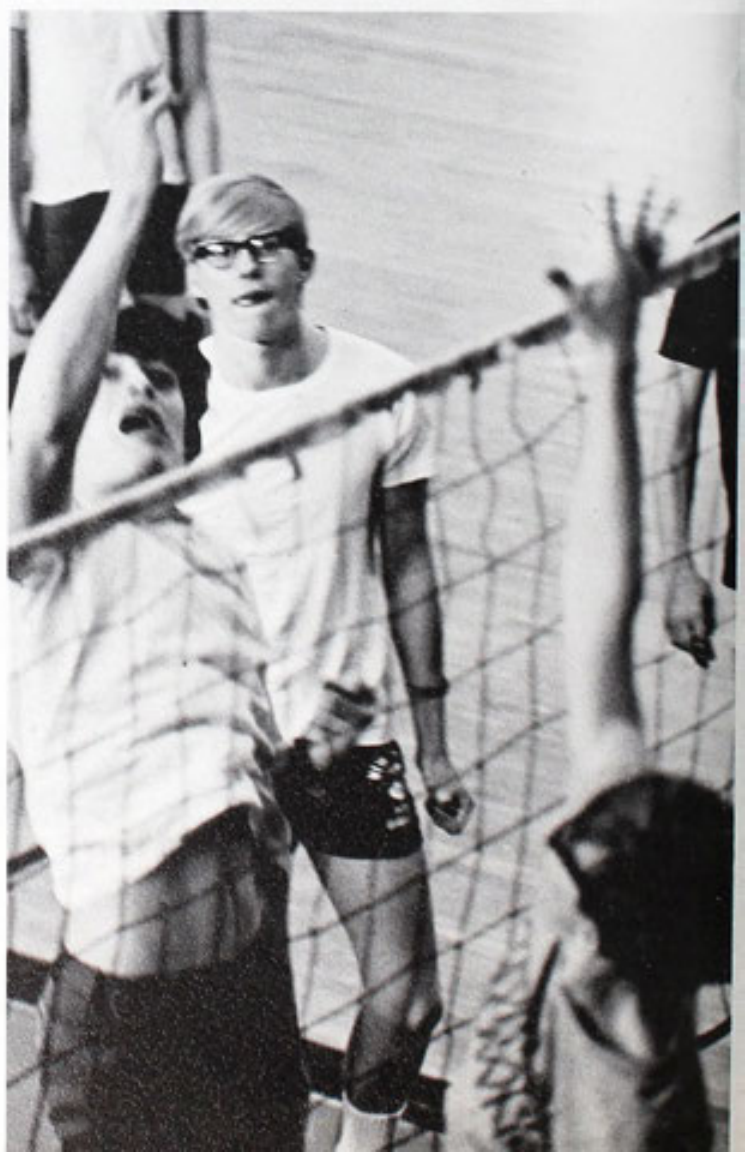

Books to expand the mind
Or
Perhaps a social gathering?
New furniture arrangements —
Enforcement of old rules.
Important? Quiet!
Is it worth it?

Physical Education

Physical fitness —
Training the body —
Through gym activities.
From playing volleyball to
Turning flips on a trampoline.
Participating in Physical fitness tests.
Striving to achieve
A high goal.

Special Education

Learning basics of math and English
 How to write a check
 Multiplication, division, and addition.
 Learning to become productive
 Success in obtaining a job
 Saving money.
 In a greater sense —
 It's learning about life.

Upper left: Mr. Dave Milburn and Mr. Sam Miller, Upper

Art

Paper, prints, potholders, Picasso
Art is all of these things.
Field trips to enrich —
Projects from which to learn
Finding oneself through expression.

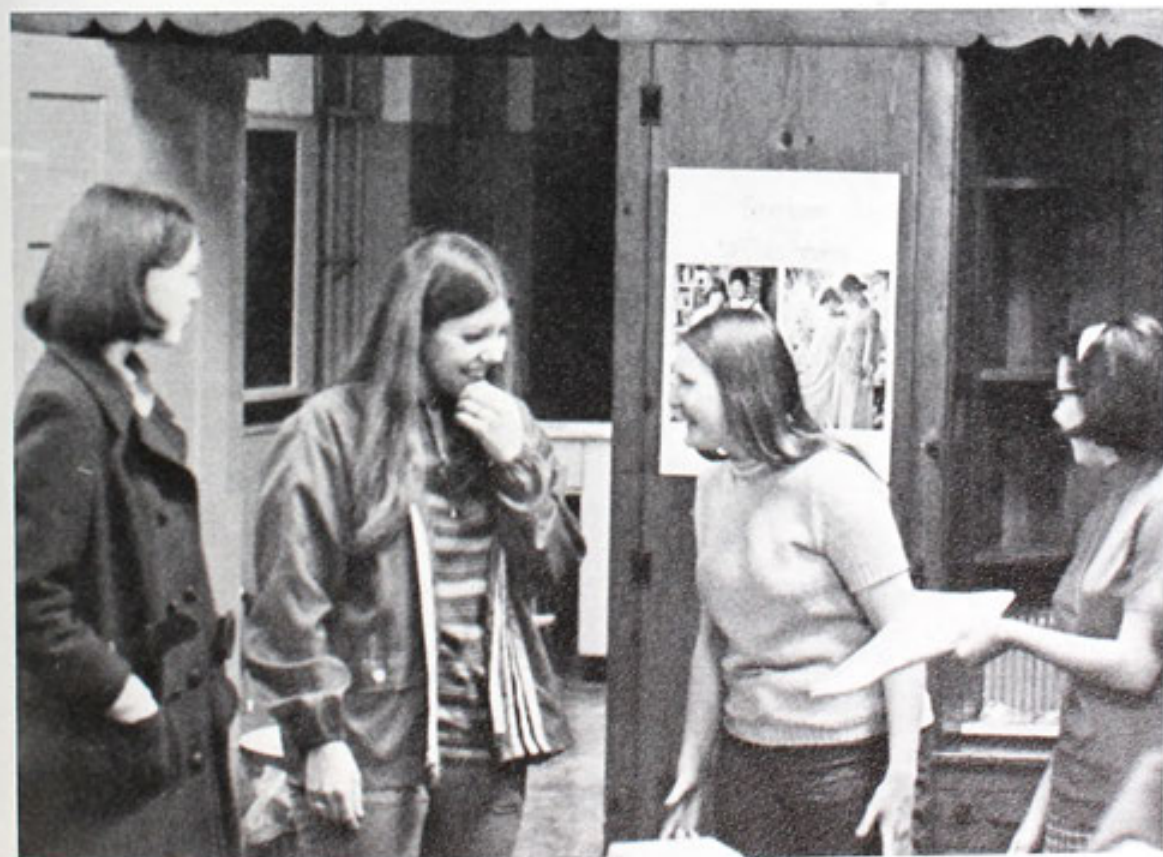

Top: Mrs. Marylee Lewellyn.
Right: Kim Francis.

Home Economics

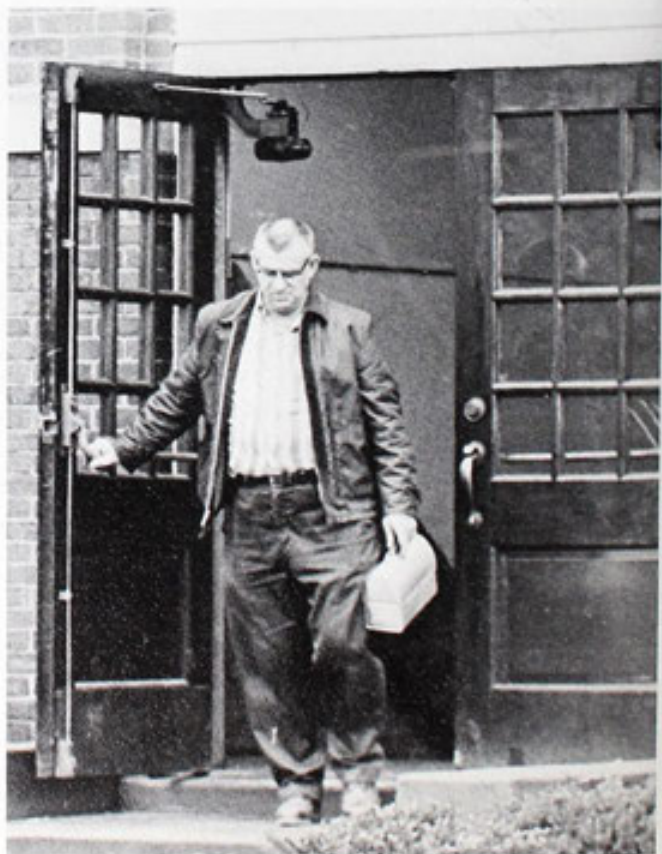

Cutting a pattern, sewing a seam —
 Putting one's personal touches into a dress
 Flaky pie crust, creamy batter —
 Iron, calcium, thiamin, and niacin —
 All in a delicious meal.
 Bleaching, rinsing, and softening clothes
 The correct way to iron a shirt
 Feeding, bathing, disciplining children —
 All important steps in becoming a homemaker.

Top: Miss Bette Burge, Miss Jane Wise, and Mrs. Judy Scott. Left: Home-ec girls.

Service Personnel

Performing much needed repair work
Keeping the school clean —
Caring for the grounds —
Preparing "food" and Keeping the cafeteria neat —
Helping to make school a Little more pleasant place to Be!

Driver's Education

Crash!
A wrinkled fender.
Crinkle!
A dented door.
Crack!
A broken window.
Another accident avoided
By Drivers' Education.

What makes a winning team?
Coaches that are really concerned.
Students willing to become athletes.

Well, then, what happened
To the Phila athletic program?

A disease. It's called apathy.

A "coach" that doesn't
Get his team "up" for a game.

One who doesn't yell when his team loses.

A dedicated "athlete" who needs his smoke

And a drink more than a hard practice.

One who is told to run three laps,

But only runs one

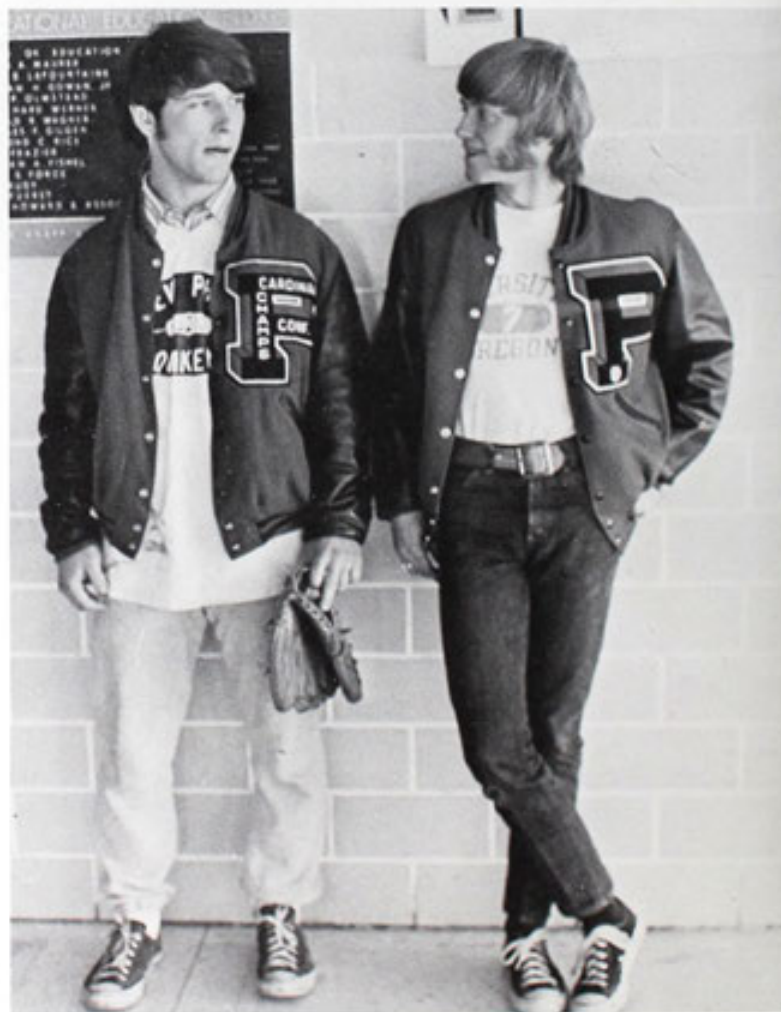

Because the coach isn't watching.

"Nobody cares anymore."

"That's evident."

And until the coaches and students do care —

Prepare for constant mediocrity.

Football

17 seniors lost by graduation,
6,739 lbs. of "beef"
Rebuilt and molded.
Quakers show potential
In first outing.
Last minute pass,
Turner to Demattio,
Unlocks score.
New Phila. 12 — Akron South 6.

Wooster game provides
A time of learning.
Mistakes give Generals
Two easy TD's
Offense didn't jell.
Generals top Quakers
14-6.

Emotional difficulties for Zanesville;
 Senior guard killed by a lightning bolt,
 Jim Long gallops — 218 yards,
 1956? Bill Cooper?
 "I think we finally put it together,"
 New Phila. 22 — Zanesville 7.
 Game ball awarded to parents of deceased.

N.P. wins —
 Statistically.
 We played a great game —
 Between the 30's.
 Offense stopped three times
 Inside the 30 yd. stripes.
 Big Red tore it all apart.
 Bellaire 26 — Phila. 0

Madison visits Phila.
 Defense deteriorates,
 Gaping holes —
 Annihilation!
 Madison romps 42-0.
 23 positions open?
 Let's forget this one.

Fantastic 44 fields initial kick-off
 On first bounce,
 Bolts 75 yards for TD.
 Arrows counter with lone score.
 Cohesive defense dominates.
 Happy Homecoming —
 20-8.

Offensive line produces
 Huge holes for Quaker runners.
 Anxious N.P. defensive secondary would never
 Make it as a corp of receivers —
 Numerous possible interceptions dropped.
 Phila uses grind-out football tactics,
 Everyone turns in outstanding performance.
 Falcons plucked —

Torrential downpour.
 Quaker stadium:
 Sloppy swamp.
 Result:
 Six fumbles.
 Defense picks off
 Two Redskin passes.
 Brent Kirk proves consistent,
 Splits uprights 3 times.
 NPHS 21 — CHS 7.
 Parent's Night brightened.

No. 44 sidelined by injury.
 NP secondary snatches four passes,
 Turner hurls two TD aerials.
 Mistakes sink Mustangs —
 19-8.
 Spirit builds to climax of season.

Quakers confined to own backyard.
 Early defensive strength
 Gradually deteriorates
 Cal Schwartz turns in outstanding performance.
 Tornado triple option uncontrollable.
 NP plays cat and mouse defense?
 Two fumbles give Dover excellent field position.
 Turner to Clum bomb provides Lone Quaker score.
 NP spirits revived,
 6:15 left to play —
 Tucker recovers fumble
 On Phila's one yard line.
 Offense smothered.
 Hopes dwindle.
 Dover controls and capitalizes.
 21-6.
 You can't win when you're Trying not to lose.

Cheerleaders

"Have you noticed that it is snowing?"

"No, my hair always looks gunky."

"Nobody ever told me about these working conditions."

"That's because you might refuse the chance to participate in our new apathetic athletic program."

"What are all the people standing for?"

"Maybe we recovered a fumble or something."

"Look at all the drunks in the stands."

"Where did they all come from?"

"Those are our seniors."

"Well, better give them a cheer."

"Okay, let's do 'victory'."

"I forget how that goes."

"That's alright. Fake it, they can't hear you anyway."

Cross Country

Coach Dawson returns,
New course constructed.
Gildersleeve and Krieger consistently place.
Krieger's 10:17 time is best
For 1970 harriers.

"Why don't we have cheerleaders?"

"Well, Gary, you've got to get People to attend the meets first."

5-1 record.

One of the few bright spots in Quaker athletics is going unnoticed.

Wrestling

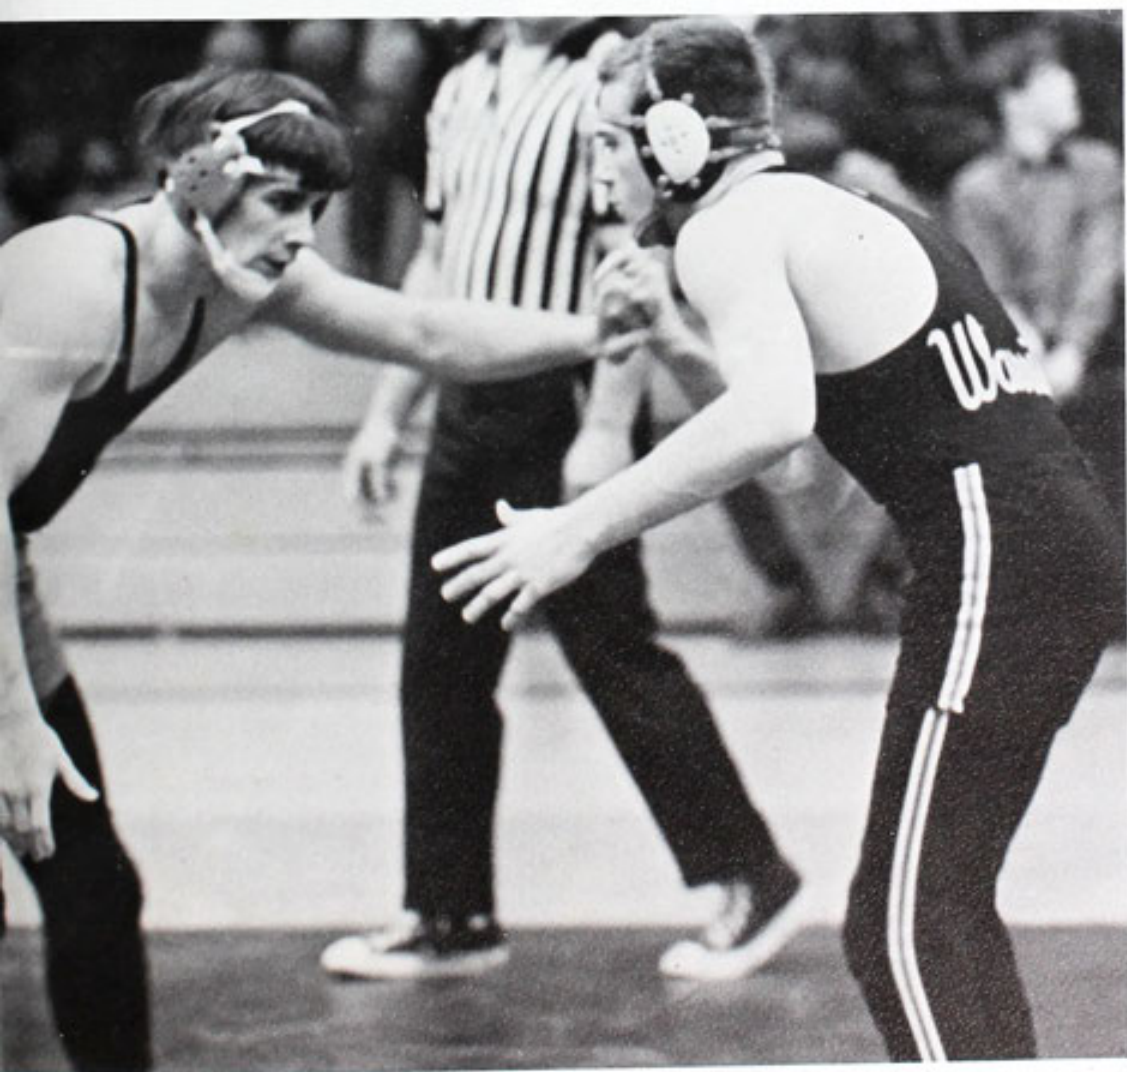

Who would like to be wrestling coach?
Coaches Benedum and Fox accept.
It would be a strain to one's
Comprehension to anticipate success.
Inexperience —
9 sophs, 4 juniors, 1 senior —
And they show it on the mat.

Talent —
Rarely displayed.
"What happened to last year's underclass lettermen?"
"They quit."
Result —
Less than average season.

Upper left: Row 1. Pat Henninge. Row 2. Kenny Kinsey, Bruce Reese, George Wiggins, John Engeldinger, Mike Bore, Jeff Kohler, Tony Korn, Chip Street, Bob Wood. Row 3. Lower right: Jeff Demattio.

Basketball

Hoping for the best,
Expecting the worst,
And receiving the latter,
The Quaker basketball team
Began its season.
Height,
Speed,
And shooting ability —
The only weak points.
A rebuilding year?
With a senior team?

Top: Chris Kilchenman. Lower left: Bob Jerles and Dave Quicksall. Center: Doug Konowal and Rick Wells. Lower right: Managers, Sam Raber and Dan Douglas.

Far left: Chris Kilchenman,

Konowal.

Satisfying moments?
 That's questionable.
 Claymont game turns into
 A boxing match.
 Who said this wasn't a
 Physical sport?
 After seven straight losses
 Phila accidentally slips by Madison.
 And then normality returns —
 Quakers dumped by Perry.

Do these guys really practice?
 Bob Jerles' 26 points against
 Timken one of the few noteworthy performances.
 Benny Cox ends up with 21 points
 In lone tournament tilt.
 Maybe he should have played more often?
 But the last quarter surge falls short —
 As usual.
 A deserving team,
 A deserving coach —
 Get what they deserve.
 4-15 record.
 Congratulations —
 We haven't had a season like that
 For quite some time.

Golf

A sport of skill,
Club small white ball
In hole millions of Yards away. Do it in
Two strokes.
Sand traps, lakes,

To excitement of Game.

Track

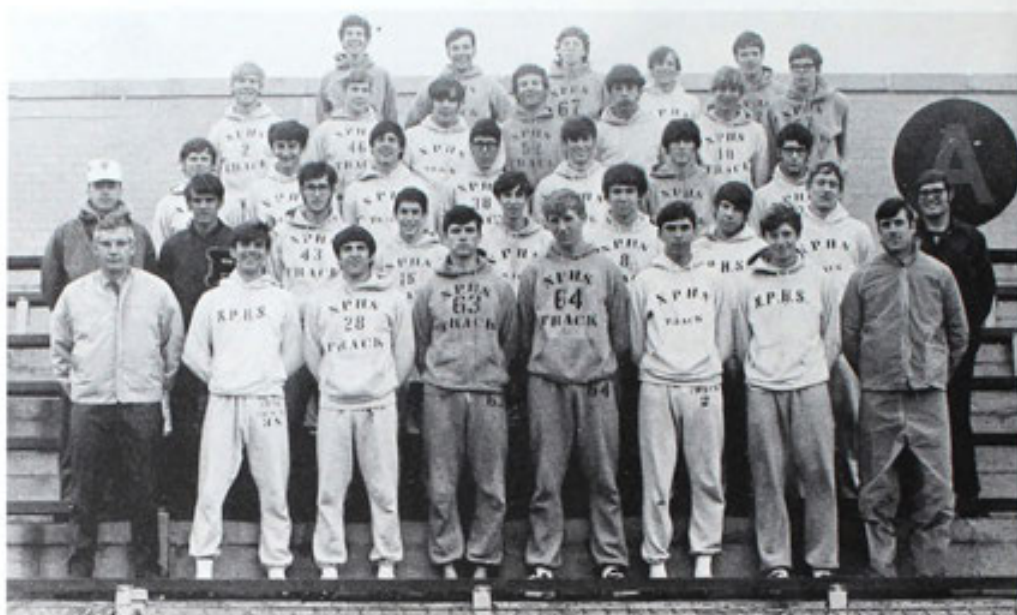

A winning team!
 Hard to believe, isn't it?
 Brilliant sophomores,
 Superb effort by upperclassmen,
 Good coaching—
 Result . . .
 Successful season.
 Weaknesses . . .
 Depth fine for duals,
 Lacking in Invitationals.
 Twelve years of domination dwindles,
 Dover tops Phila 78-50.

Decent season.
 But a few embarrassing moments . . .
 Breaking the pole during a record vault,
 Fouling three times when standard points
 Could have won the meet,
 Running the fastest race in the fastest
 Heat and not qualifying,
 Dropping the baton and losing a ten yard
 Lead on the last stretch on the 440 relay.

Baseball

After opening win,
The team crashes from cloud nine.
Numerous defeats.
The infield's a boat without a bottom.
The outfield — an airplane without wings.
Dave Yaggi shows great potential.
Steve Clum's homer in the seventh inning
Against Steubenville pulls the team
Out of a slump —
Only to return the next game.

Upper left: Gary Yarnell.

Shortstops play second base,
Centerfielders become catchers,
Reserves brought up.
Trying to find the right combination.
The "right combination" loses to Dover
In the only tournament game.
"NP 2 runs 8 hits 15 errors
Dover 14 runs 8 hits 2 errors."
So much for that combination.

Remember the night of the Prom?
Only a few attend the practice.
But do you remember the punishment?
Ten laps sure would be a long jog.
That's real dedication.

"Sure! Don't you remember reputation that's been built this year."

"Yea. Too bad
it's not a good one."

Student Council

Twelve representatives from each class,
Four officers,
One adviser,
Working together
To be

Dress code revisers (enforcers?!?),
Teachers' Christmas stocking makers,

Rivalry.

Snake Dance
Whirling, running
Tripping
Through town
Down the hill.

Bonfire
Crowd, heat, enthusiasm
Slam 'tornado' car for a quarter
VICA, team cheers.

Pep Rally
Audiometer — a loud cheer
The dial hits ten
A step up the ladder
The final step, pie in the face.

Game
A hard fight
Big half-time show
Disappointing score.

Homecoming

Heavy coats, warm mittens, blankets,
The cold Homecoming atmosphere.
A mum from a friend
A cry — "Beat Ashland."

Lustrous hair,
Bright, soft wool,
Anxious pretty faces,
Shining eyes,
A bouquet.

Shiny Corvettes carry our court
Who will be queen?
Nerves,
Suspense,
Excitement,
Smiles,
Tension breaks
Joyful tears from surprised Terri.

Student Council Dance —
Laugh, sing, swing
"The Suite"
— concludes that special day.

Rose Queen

Qualification — a Youth Center membership
Voting — three winners,
A queen and two attendants.
The prize,
A velvet cape, an arm full of roses.

Reigning at a dance, football game,
And Saturday selling of roses downtown,
Riding on a Christmas float.
Queens for a day.

Upper left: Pam Kimball and Chip Street. Lower left: Dave Dennis and Martha Hunter. Upper right: Steve Heimberger and Eva Schwartz. Lower right: Mark Menapace and Sue Lehman.

Winter Formal

Formal dress
Gowns, pantdresses, tuxedos.
Anticipating a wonderful evening.

Strung crepe paper — decorations?

Music provided,

A group no one had ever heard before

Later hoping one never would again.

Refreshments — warm, bitter punch.

Enjoying very little

Leaving the Elks early.

A night one thought

Would never end.

Sweater Hop

Hard work
Planning, painting
Decorations everywhere.

Tri-Hi-Y presents
A gambling casino, a park,
A barbershop, a saloon —
"The Good Old Days."

Successful results,
From a gymnasium
To past days,
But a financial flop.

Upper left: Pam Rippeth at work meeting.
 Lower left: Joel Day at work meeting. Upper

The Old South

Prom,
Post prom,
Bowling,
"Wuthering Heights,"
Picnic,
Swimming.
A well-planned evening
In the Old South.

Concert Band

Fanciful notes,
Strong beats,
Soft selections,
Blaring horns.

Versatility in sound,
Masters of instruments,
Their year for music.

Choir

The voice,
The faculty
Of song,
Raised.

Performance —
Patrons' Concert,
Parents' Concert,
Choir Workshop,
Carols in the hall.

A band of singers
Completes
Another
Successful year.

Generation

A frustrated father-in-law,
A nonconformist son-in-law.
Comedy and crisis.
Conclusion:
"There is no such thing
As a right and wrong
Generation,
Just right and wrong
People."

Class of 1971

A divided group.
Few money-making projects,
Constant change of class advisers.
A bright spot —
Hard work produces "Fairytale Forest," a beautiful prom.

Seniors —
Anxious
To get out.
Apathetic
Toward grades
And what happens here next year.
Always
Smoking, complaining, or drunk.
1971 Alkies.
Quite a reputation.

Senior Banquet

May 27, 1971.

We were all "made legal" at the door.
Our breaths were checked, but

They missed some of us.

"Who in the world can stand sweet potatoes and ham with fruit sauce?"

A meal that ten percent of the class liked.
Mark Graff —

Entertaining master of ceremonies.

Presentation of gifts to Brad Bernard —

Our own special hero.

We had a great time —

The Administration seemed to disapprove.

No one had a good word to say about us.

Except one very nice Spanish teacher.

We weren't really that bad, were we?

Commencement 1971

May 30, Quaker Stadium, A beautiful evening.

"I wonder if we get to take off our handcuffs to shake hands?"

"It's hard to walk down the field carrying a ball and chain."

Pomp and Circumstance.

A few short, livable speeches.

Valedictorian — David Meakin.

Salutatorian — Jeanne Bihari.

"Congratulations to the class of 1971!"

Tassels moved to the left, and —

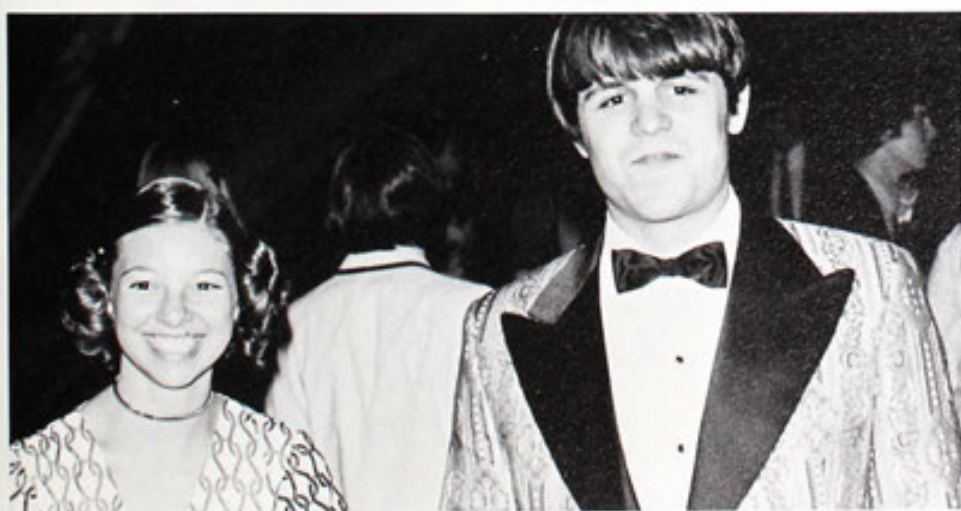

"We made it!"

Class of 1972

Pie-eating contest, very successful
And car-rally, a phenomenal flop!
Planning for the prom at a new place,
Holding the prom in the same old gym.
Revolutionary ideas —
Red tape and "No's"
Nevertheless it turned out all right
The Juniors —
"Wait 'til we're Seniors."

Class of 1973

Energetic,
Full of new ideas.
Designing and choosing school rings.
Money-making projects —
Christmas cartoon festival,
Record raffle,
Donkey basketball.
A carnival — real class involvement,
A new thing at NPHS.
Seeking improvement —
A class with a future of change.

O.K. —
 We've been tearing down,
 Criticizing,
 Taking apart.
 Why?
 To bring about
 Some thought
 Or insight
 Or realization.
 To point out that
 Everyone makes up
 An institution of learning —
 Not just the Athlete,
 The honor student,
 The student council member.
 Think about it.
 (Think about anything!)

This is the end — of something.
But what?
The end of a high school education
Brings the end
Of a certain amount of absurdity.
The end
Of a long learning experience.
The end
Of what should have been only the start
Of a process of self-discovery
And self-realization.
If it wasn't any of these things,
Well —
"A person only gets out
What he puts in."
That's all.
