After a cool summer the annual late August heat wave made classrooms on the third floor almost unbearable. In an effort to help out, big industrial fans were put at both ends of the hall.

ew Phila's 7-0 homecoming game victory was a shock to many people, especially the Cambridge Bobcats who were favored to win by The Times Reporter. Student Spirit ew Phila was always full of spirit, and this year was no different. "Even though I've been participating in Spirit Week for 3 years, this year was by far the most fun I've ever had!" said Senior, Marci Neff. Marci wasn't the only person who felt this way. The enthusiasm was felt throughout all grade levels, as students took part in days such as Dream on Dover, Make Dover See Double, Mismatch Dover, Hunt Down Dover, and Spirit Day.

Hunter Meo, posing as a Dover football player, got knocked out. Literally! As Jason Haney tackled him in the annual skit, the impact was a little too much. The rest of the Chorale added to Hunter's concussion by piling on top of him. It was such a knockout it sent him to the emergency room!

Not the best but...

Still the Prettiest.

To boost their confidence, the girls varsity team had an inside joke about being the prettiest team in the E.C.O.L. Although it's all about opinions, they took pride in their gorgeous looks and ability to play the game. The team improved to split even in the E.C.O.L. with a record of 6-6. Seniors Kayela Tidrick, Kimmy Zeller, and Jackie Klingler led the way to a fun and memorable season.

The girls on the bench are parched from playing hard.

One lone... SENIOR!

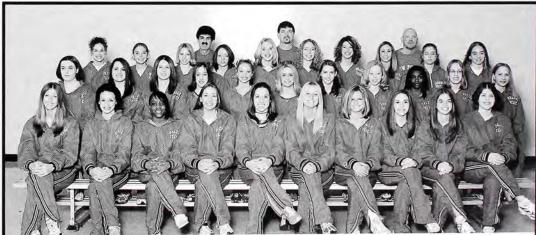

Poor Kayela Tidrick, coming out the last half of the season, she had to spend her last year of track with a bunch of freshmen and sophomores with the exception of four juniors. Kayela helped the girls track team out by placing first in shot put in the E.C.O.L, County Classic, and at Districts. The girls won the District meet at Zanesville. For a very young team this was a big accomplishment. Ten people qualified to the Regional meet. Megan Rupe (pole vault) and Haley Gasser (long jump) both qualified to the State Meet.

Red & Black

The JV softball teams were prepared for full schedules and a long season. Unfortunately, the weather didn't cooperate. Game after game was cancelled and with the limited number of fields available, many of the games couldn't be made up. Because each team was very small, all the girls got plenty of playing time and they had to stay healthy so they could field a full team.

ON A ROLL

"We're not freshman anymore!" -Katie Meo

We can all agree that the best part of our sophomore year was not eing freshman anymore! We have "moved up in the world", as helsie Wigert would put it. Lockers on the second floor, not getting ushed around, and knowing our way around the school, all benefits f being a sophomore! We have two years down, and two more left go.

ALMOST THERE

"Our class really came together to put on an out of the ordinary prom."

-Emily Henning

Over the past few years we had been waiting for our time to shine, and then it was there. The classes got harder and people started to cick it into full gear to get prepared for college. But the thing we nost longed for was the prom. The whole class made an attempt to to their hardest work to make the prom the best it could be.

Student Council Class Officers

Student Council and Class Officers were very busy this year. Both tried hard to raise maney. Student council did everything from homecoming to selling candy to raise money for the end of the year trip. Class officers worked hard at the basketball games and wrestling matches to make money for their classes. They also thought up neat fundraisers to make money so that they have tons of money for their junior year to put on prom.

BEHIND THE Scene

The junior class worked for months to get ready for the 2004 prom. They contemplated many themes and finally made a decision with Oriental Enchantment. When it came time to set up for prom, things didnt't go well. But, with the help of many hard working juniors and their parents, the prom turned out to be a real Oriental Enchantment for everyone.

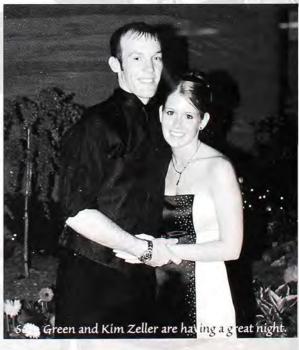

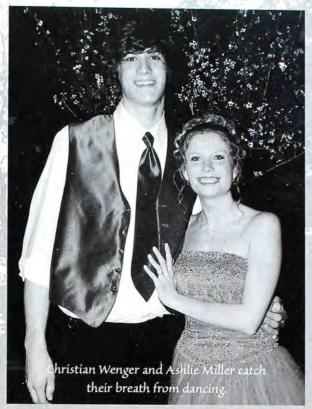

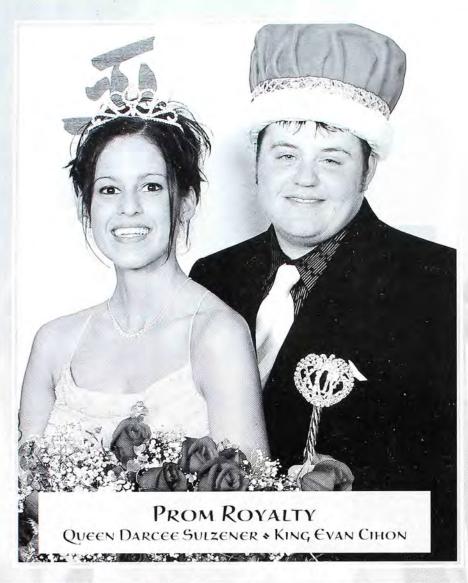

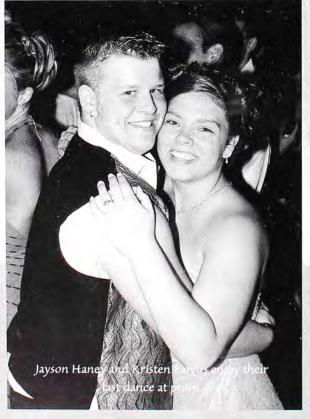

DON'T RAIN ON OUR PARADE

On May 1, 2004, the skies were dark and threatening. Everyone came prepared for a downpour with umbrellas in hand. Fortunately, mother nature was on the side of the NPHS students. It only sprinkled for a short time, and the students stayed dry until they got into the sweaty gym.

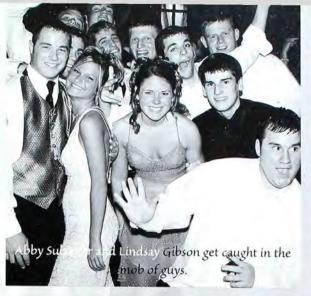

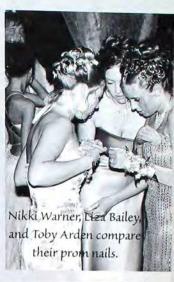

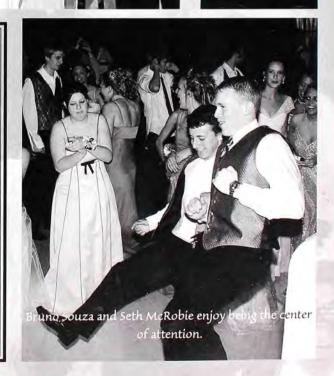

ORIENTAL ENCHANTMENT

"Dung Chang Woi". Translated (NOT REALLY) INTO English means Prom Was Fun. The juniors transformed the gym into an oriental palace, decorated with lights and a dance floor. The best part of all, was the throne area where royal chairs awaited the reign of the King and Queen.

Nicole is glad Billy came home for Prom.

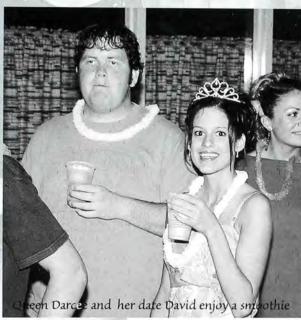

Ashlie is excited to go to post Prom with Christian!

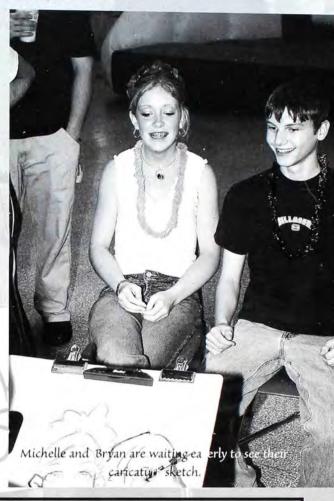

Aaron Gasser is just hanging out at Post Prom.

SMOOTH FUN

The Juniors put on a luau for Post Prom.

Couples could enjoy many various activities such as caricature sketches, iron man competition, boxing, velcro wall, raffle prizes, and many more fun activities. The Juniors did a great job of making it a tropical paradise by providing smoothies and other tropical drinks.

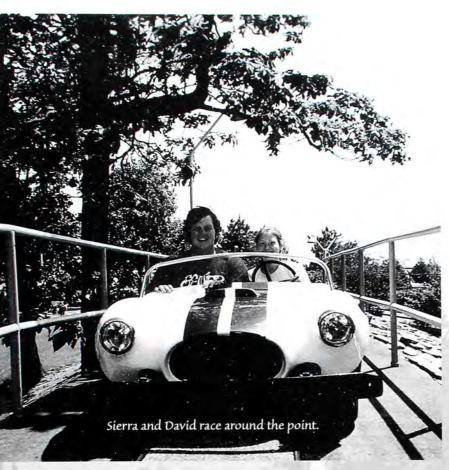

FUELED UP

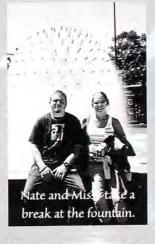

The seniors dodged some light rain in between rides at Cedar Point. The talk of the park was the new Top Thrill Dragster roller coaster which shot you up over 400 feet. For the less adventurous dippin' dots, bumper cars and watching was all they could handle.
