HISTORIES, MYSTERIES AND...

FANS A WHIZZING. AS THE NEW YEAR BEGAN STUDENTS WERE REMINDED OF THE SCALDING TEMPERATURES ON THE THIRD FLOOR. THE ONLY THING ON EVERYONE'S MIND WAS, "WHERE ARE THE FANS?" FINALLY ONCE THE WEATHER CHANGED OUR MINDS WERE SET ON MORE IMPORTANT THINGS. WE BECAME USED TO BATTLING CROWDED HALLS OF SENIORS AS WE TRAVELED DOWN THE HALL TOWARDS ENGLISH CLASS. IT BECAME NORMAL WAITING UNTIL THE VERY LAST SECOND BEFORE DASHING TO CLASS, OR RUNNING DOWN THE HALL TO MAKE IT TO HISTORY, GOVERNMENT, OR SCIENCE. NO MATTER HOW CROWDED THE THIRD FLOOR GOT, WE ALWAYS SEEMED TO GET THINGS DONE.

Olivia loves learning!

A quick dash from lunch, Emily Bernard hopes to make it to class on time.

Rachel thinks life on the third floor is SPECTACULAR!

Kayla, Ashley, and Annie struggle to make it through the crowded hallways.

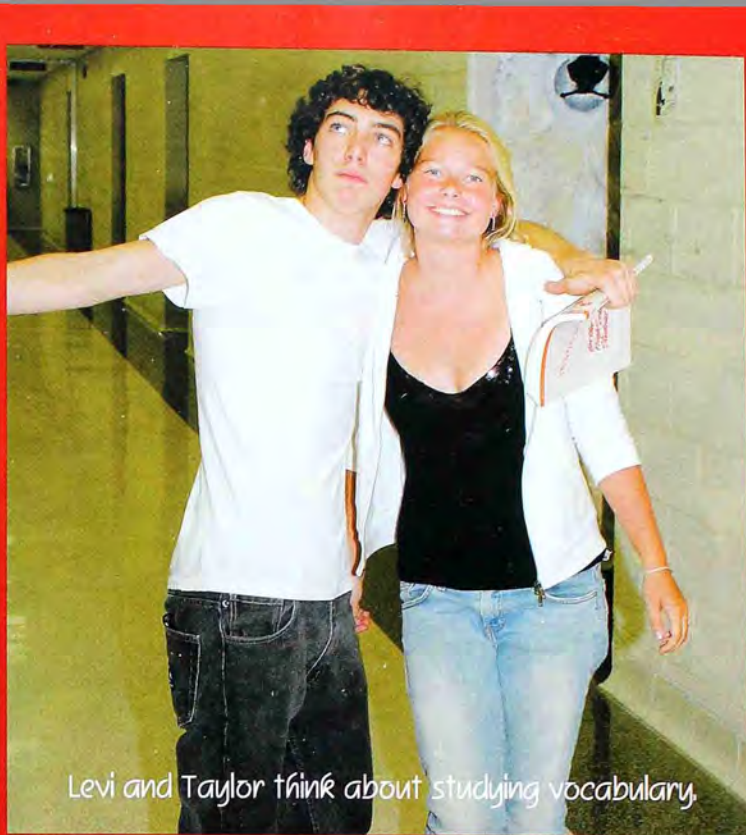

Katie and Allison know how to start the year out right.

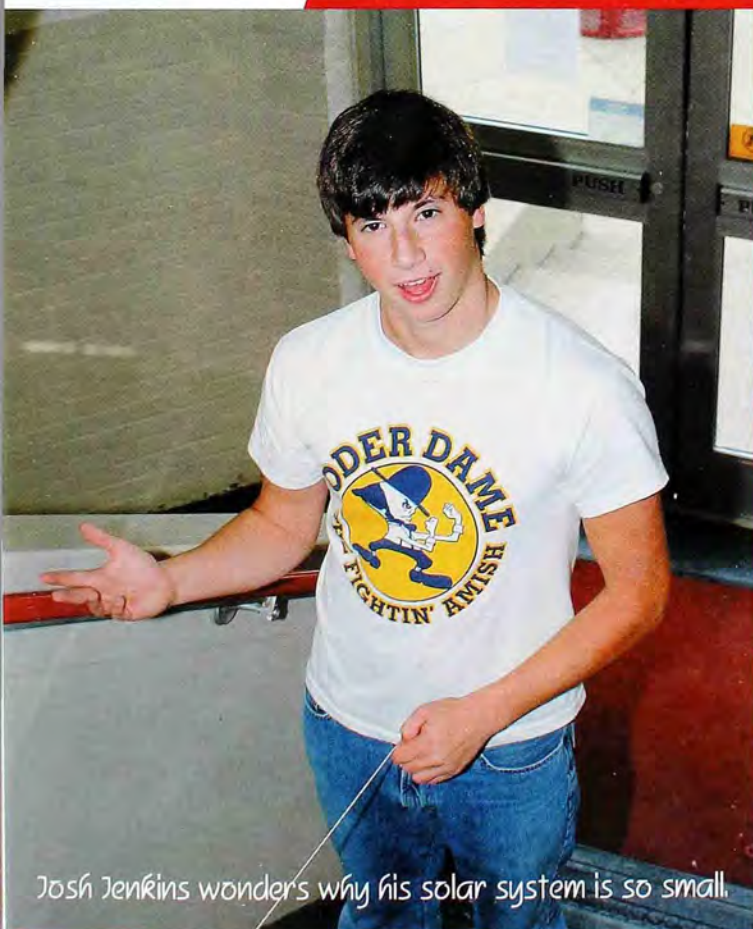

Zach and Trevor indulge in some relaxation from their hectic day.

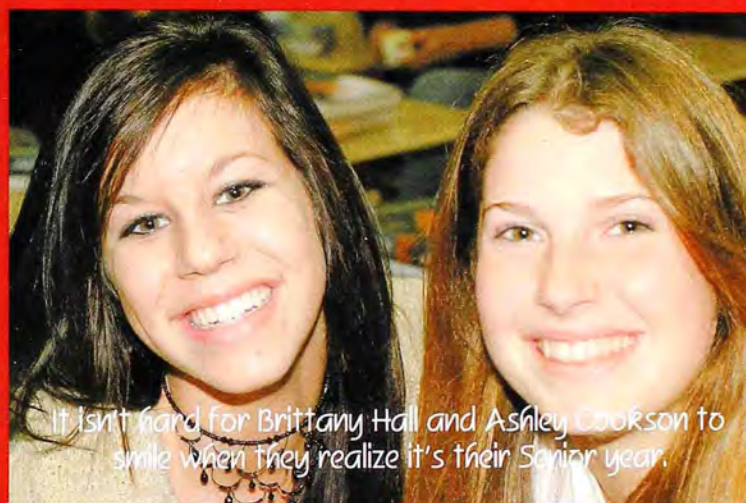

Working on a project for Mr. Zehnder Eric. Laura, Cassie and Huston try to measure the solar system.

Levi and Taylor think about studying vocabulary.

Josh Jenkins wonders why his solar system is so small.

It isn't hard for Brittany Hall and Ashley Cookson to smile when they realize it's their Senior year.

Patrick strolls to Government.

Amy and Ashley can't wait for their Senior year to begin.

BISECTING, DISSECTING, AND...

PEEPER CALLS IT QUIT.

EVERYONE WAS SURPRISED TO COME TO SCHOOL ONE DAY AND FIND OUT THAT HIGH SCHOOL SECRETARY PEEPER MILLER WOULD NOT BE COMING BACK. AFTER 39 YEARS OF TAKING CARE OF ALL OF US (AND OUR PARENTS) SHE DECIDED IT WAS TIME TO MOVE ON. EVERYONE LIKED TO HANG OUT BETWEEN CLASSES ON THE SECOND FLOOR BECAUSE ONE SIDE WAS WITHOUT LOCKERS AND THERE WAS ROOM TO CONVERSE. OUR INNER SENSE TOLD US JUST WHEN TO SCRAMBLE INTO MATH OR SCIENCE RIGHT BEFORE THE LAST RING OF THE BELL.

Peeper is working hard in the office.

Proud sophomores Jesse and Beth smile big!

Brendan laughs as Ashley "busta rhyme" for him.

Rachael Ramos says "Hey", as Tanya Reichert and Gina Vitangeli follow behind.

March and Ciera look through the microscope.

While styling their goggles Aaron, Michael, and Chelsea love Chemistry.

Courtney Black and Jaclyn Willoughby cruise down the hall way.

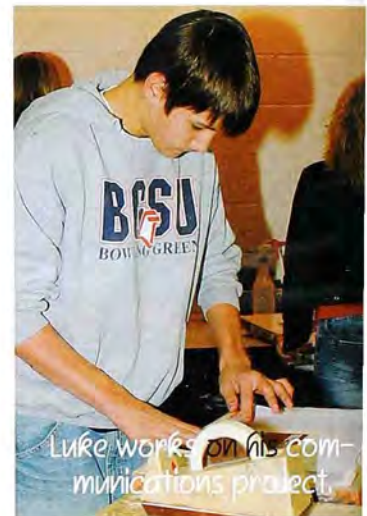

Michelle Gross, Kaylee Canyon, and Samantha Fletcher get their exercise while moving from class to class.

Kasey Best and Michelle Sickinger are having so much fun at school.

Jimmy's having a blast in workshop!

A SPLASH, A DASH, AND...

COOKIES FROM THE COOKIE SHOP. THE FIRST FLOOR BETTER KNOWN AS THE FRESHMAN HALLWAY WAS FILLED WITH NEW FACES AS THE SCHOOL YEAR BEGAN. EVERYONE WAS HURRYING TO CLASS, RUSHING TO MAKE IT ON TIME, WHICH WAS OFTEN DIFFICULT WHEN THE COOKIES WERE BEING SOLD. THE FIRST FLOOR STAIRWELLS WERE A LOG JAM AT THE BEGINNING AND END OF EVERYDAY AS STUDENTS FOUGHT THEIR WAY INTO OR OUT OF SCHOOL. FOR MANY THE FIRST FLOOR WAS THE "FUN" FLOOR WHERE ELECTIVES LIKE ART, TECH, PHYS ED, AND MUSIC WERE ALL LOCATED.

Freshmen Katie Berger, Terri Falt, and Dominique Martino work together on their cooking plan for young living.

Kasey Duda prepares to cook in young living class.

Alison Victor makes sure she's getting all her homework done.

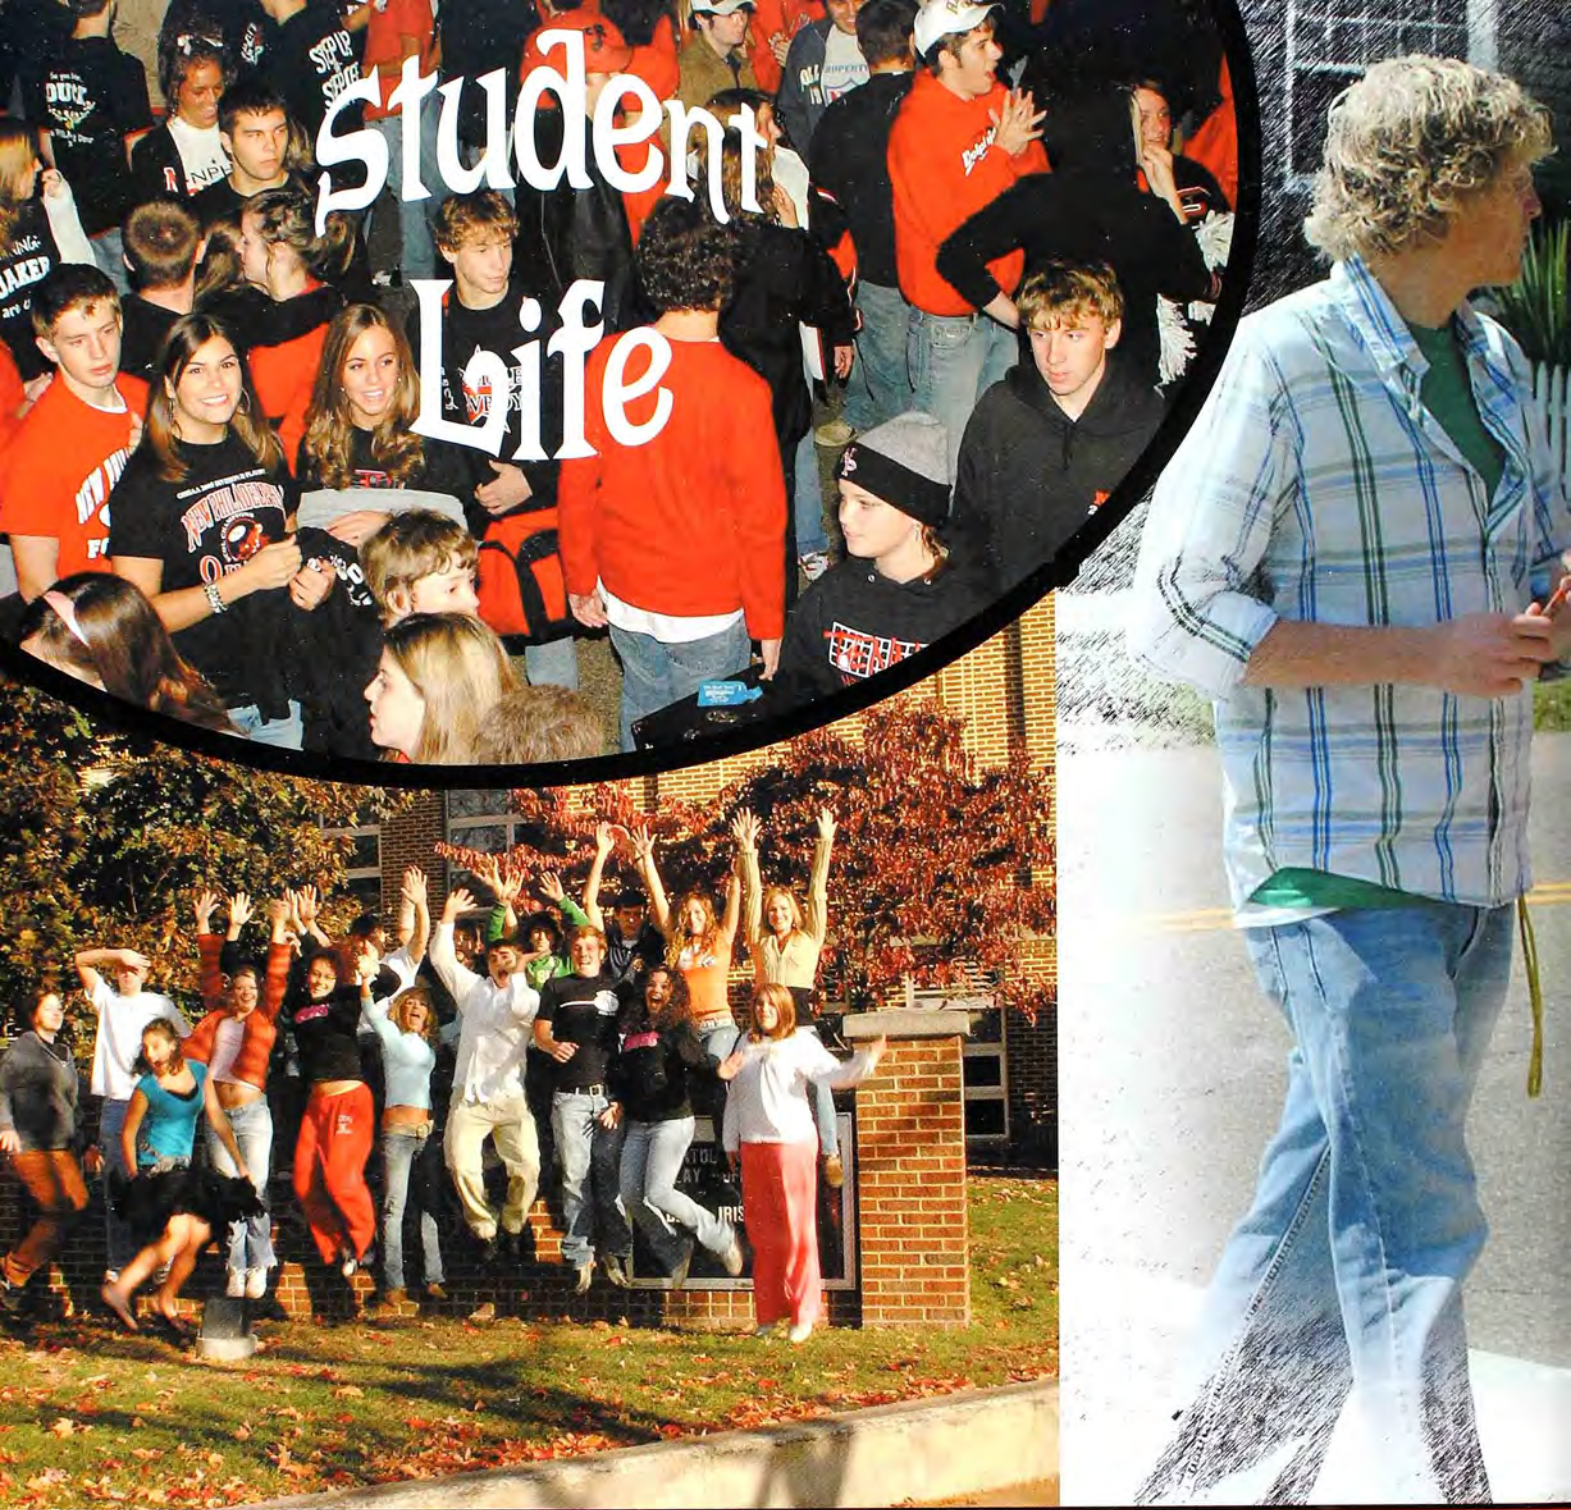

Mr. Furbay helps a middle school band student with his trombone.

Point of View

Preston Morrison gets one last laugh before going into the school to be serious.

Gina, Erika, and Mitch examine a bug during lunch for Mr. and Mrs. Brady's projects.

Chelsea is glad school is over, but is disappointed that she had homework.

Devin and Amanda are all pepped up for the spirit rally!

Freshmen don't like to use their locker, so they carry all their books!

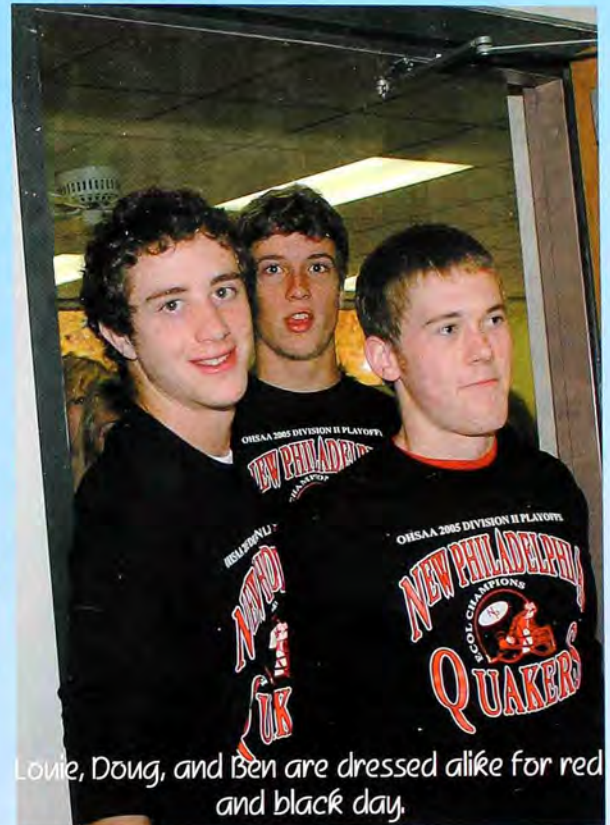

Between the Bells

"I meet Ashley Diegmiller at my locker and we talk about how we are going to skip our next class, but we never do." - Sr Amy Dillon

A lot happened when we weren't in class. The five minutes between classes gave us all a chance to plan for the weekend or for after school. The bells that signaled our lunch or the end of the day were usually our favorite sounds. Time with friends is what made doing all of the school work bearable.

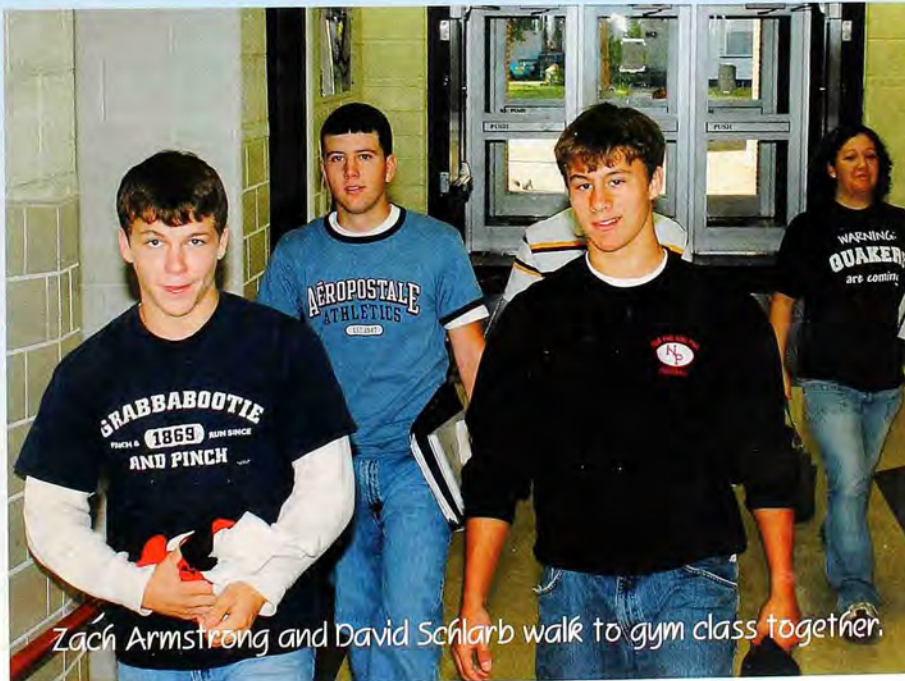

Sophomores, Jillian Fleming and Courtney Black are thrilled to finally be able to go out to lunch.

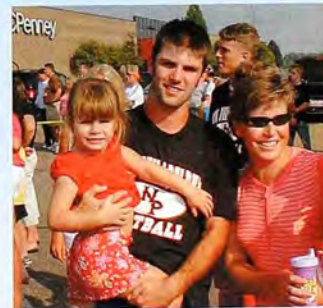

Louie, Doug, and Ben are dressed alike for red and black day.

Amber and Elizabeth are proud that they are freshman.

Zach Armstrong and David Schlarb walk to gym class together.

Richard Sandilands enjoys being around the Pry Family.

satisfaction

"I enjoy helping with student council along with the student body to help make a difference in our school and community." - Jr Chase Dummermuth

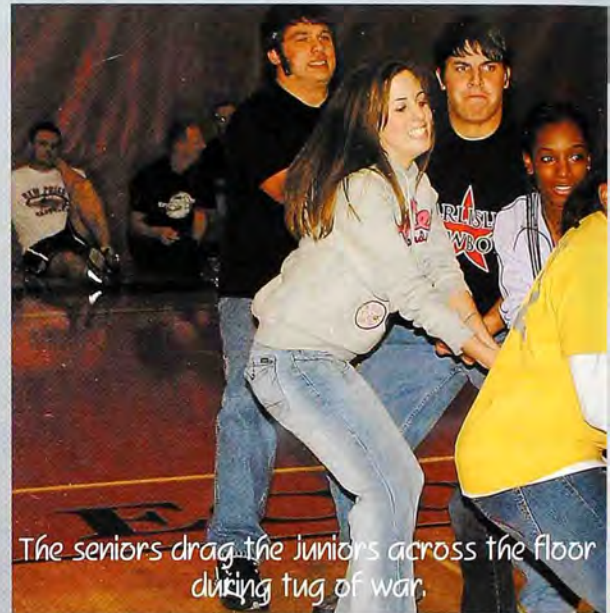

You might wonder who put in all that time to make those signs in the school, or who collected money for Share a Christmas...or maybe you just wonder why they did it. For many students, being in Student Council gave them a sense of satisfaction and opportunity to do something for the good of others. There may be other reasons, but mostly it's because they enjoyed doing it. They liked staying after school to paint signs and socialize, they liked setting up for homecoming the night before the dance, and they liked helping out around the school.

Ashley Kohl paints decorations for homecoming.

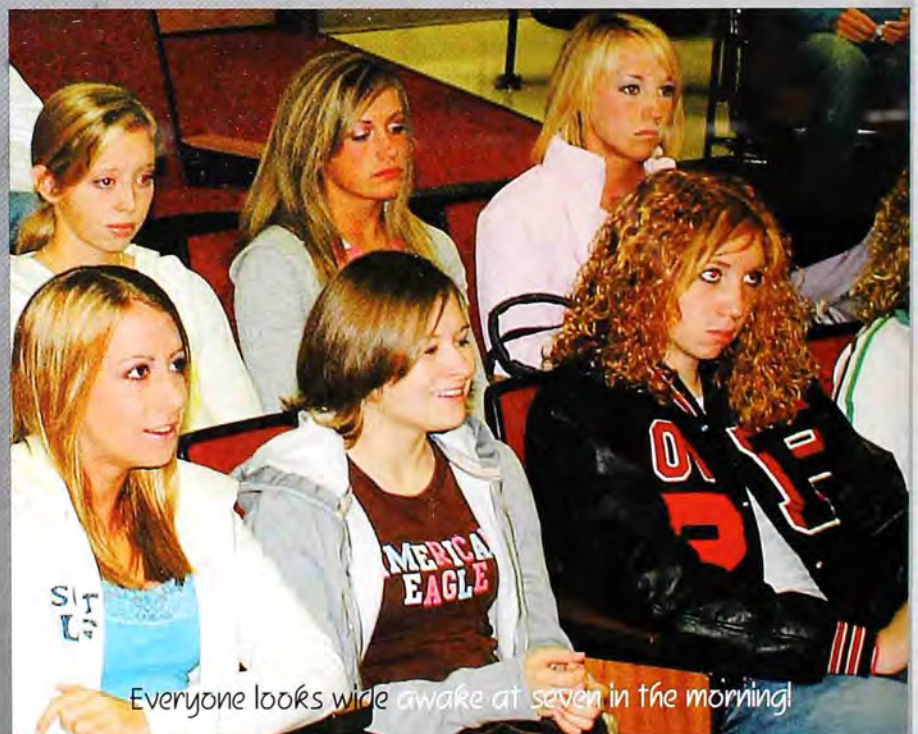

Brook Matthews shows her Quaker Spirit by helping to paint signs after school.

The seniors drag the juniors across the floor during tug of war.

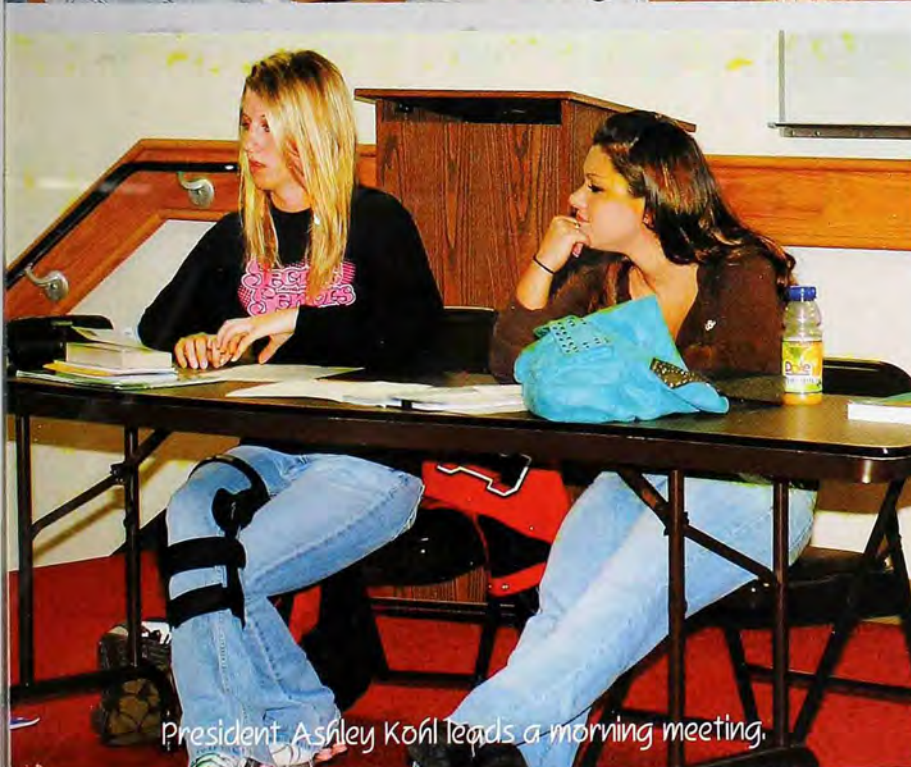

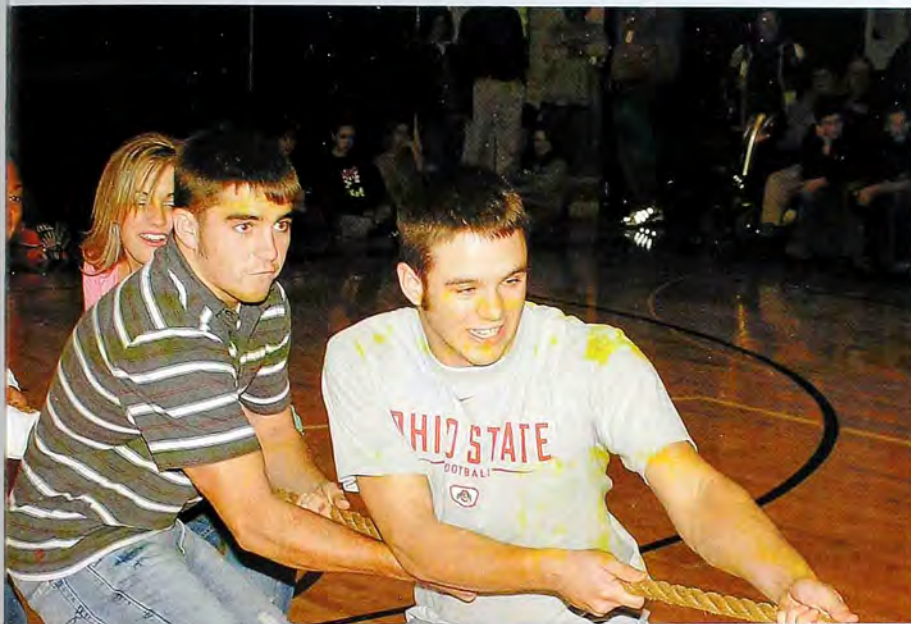

Justin Hughes spikes the ball on the student/staff volleyball game.

Everyone looks wide awake at seven in the morning!

Mrs. Shimek, Mrs. Fuller and Mr. Houmard have a laugh after getting pied in the face.

President Ashley Kohl reads a morning meeting.

For $2.00 you could sit on Santa's (aka Alex Meiser) lap and help contribute to share a Christmas.

Sara Graham and Liz Korn watch the student/staff volleyball game.

A pie in the face was all for a good cause and it gave Stephen Sabo a chance to get back at Mr. Houmard for all the homework he assigns.

DE MORE PLAY

"All good things come to an end." - Sr Jimmy Laner

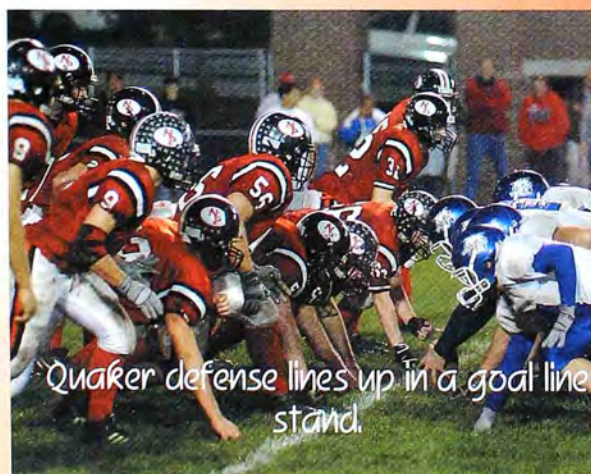

The score was 31-27. It was the fourth quarter, only seconds remained on the clock, the Quakers had to make the touchdown in order to beat Cambridge. The crowd roared with enthusiasm, cheering on the undefeated Quakers. The ball was thrown into the end zone, but quickly snatched up by the Cambridge defense. The crowd died down, coming to the realization that the Quakers were no longer undefeated. One play was all that stopped us from winning the game.

Broc makes a strong tackle against the Cambridge offense.

Queen Gets Her King

"Student Council wanted a King this year so we gave them one." -Senior Ashley Kohl.

EVERYONE KNOWS THAT A ROYAL COURT NEEDS A KING, AND STUDENT COUNCIL DECIDED THAT IT WAS TIME FOR THE QUEEN TO GET HER KING. STUDENT COUNCIL STARTED A NEW TRADITION BY HAVING THREE SENIOR BOYS ADDED TO THE COURT. THERE WAS ONE SLIGHT PROBLEM THOUGH. HOW DO YOU CROWN A KING AT HALFTIME OF A FOOTBALL GAME, IF HE IS IN THE LOCKER ROOM? STUDENT COUNCIL DECIDED TO CROWN THE QUEEN AT THE HOMECOMING GAME, AND THE KING AT THE DANCE. THE FIRST ROYAL DANCE WAS SHARED BY KING, KYLE VAUGHN, AND QUEEN, LINDSEY LINDENBAUM.

Preston Morrison and Brooke Wisecup are enjoying their night despite the loss the night before.

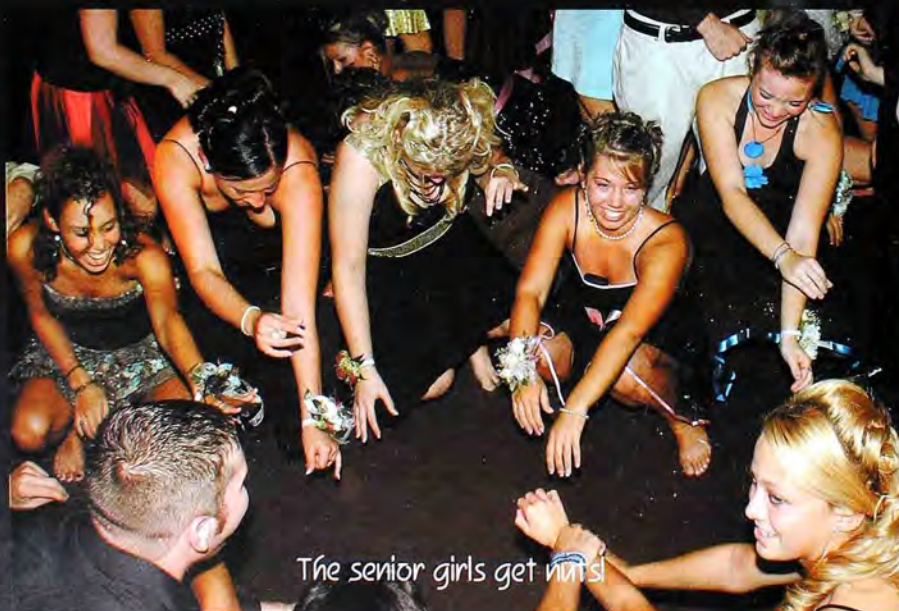

Nikki Hartline, Kyle Lukhart, Carsten Haag, and Anna Blackstone are enjoying the dance.

Chacelyn Jackson shows us some of her modeling skills.

Ashley Hawk, Kylie Westfall, and Sammi Mahaffey are having a stupendous junior homecoming.

Tyler Korn and date Sarah Tracy walk down to the dance.

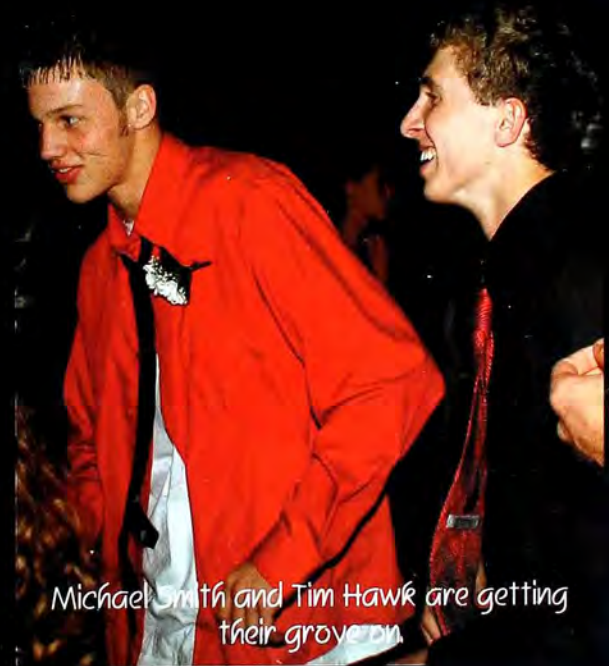

Ali Natoli and Kevin Wright are having a splendid time at their sophomore homecoming.

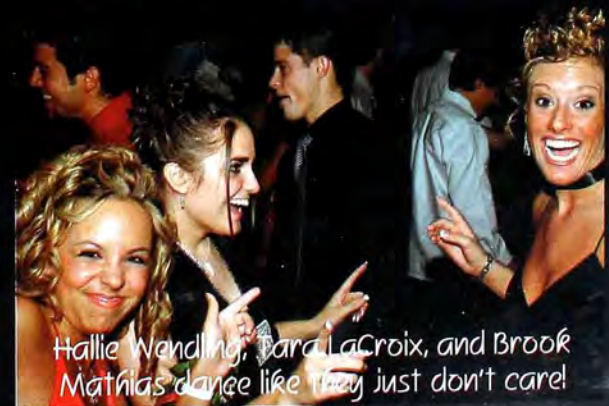

Kyle Vaughn and Brittany Hall are taking a break from dancing.

Jake Fox and Katie Warner slow it down.

Michael Smith and Tim Hawk are getting their groove on.

Hallie Wendling, Tara LaCroix, and Brook Mathias dance like they just don't care!

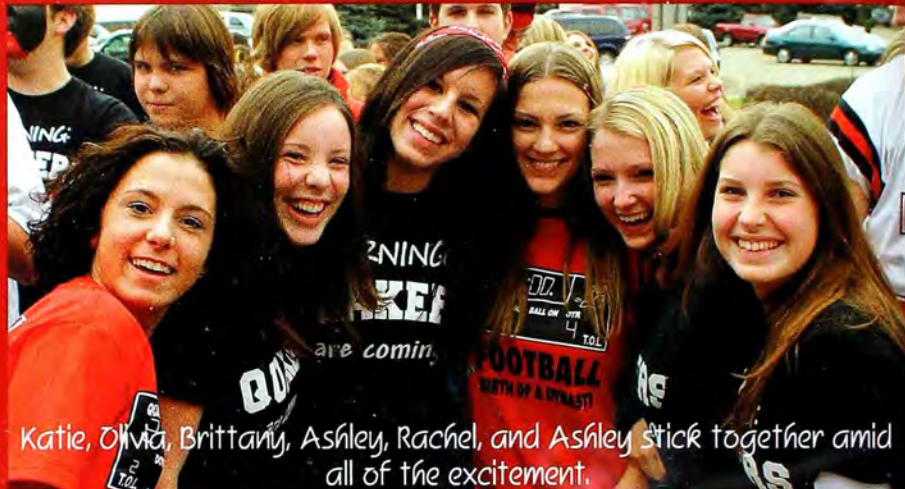

We've Got Spirit!

"Since my freshman year, I've looked forward to being a fairy." - St. Cory Myers

As school started on Monday, students sported big hair, ripped clothes, and leather jackets. It was Rock Dover Day and Gene Simmons was rock' in the school, as was Jon Bon Jovi. When Tuesday rolled around, kids got ready to Salsa over Dover with their spicy outfits. Walking through the halls you would see big sombreros, ruffled dresses, and ponchos. Superheroes were plenty on Wednesday as students showed their powerful school spirit on Power Over Dover day. Fairies and genies arrived at school anticipating the Wish Over Dover day on Thursday. And finally, on Friday everybody showed their school spirit all decked out in Phila attire for the big game.

Lisa jumps for joy that she can be a fairy for a day.

Katie, Olivia, Brittany, Ashley, Rachel, and Ashley stick together amid all of the excitement.

Brittany, Amanda, and Megan are hard-working fairies!

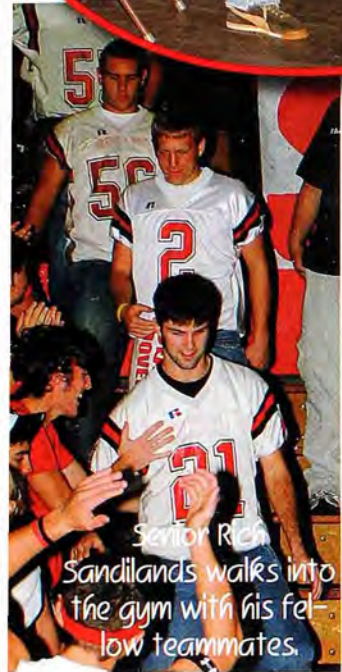

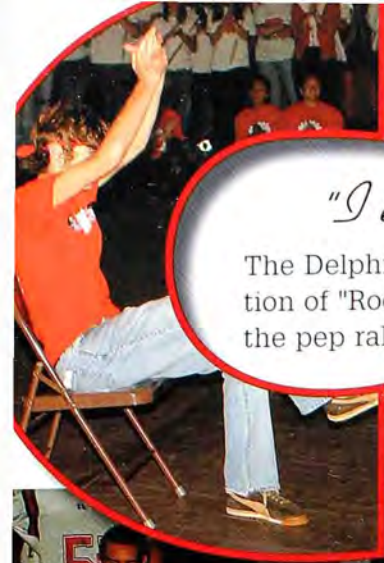

Emily, Megan, and Carly are pumped for the big game.

alling All Rockers

"I enjoyed rocking out!" -Sr. Trey Overholt

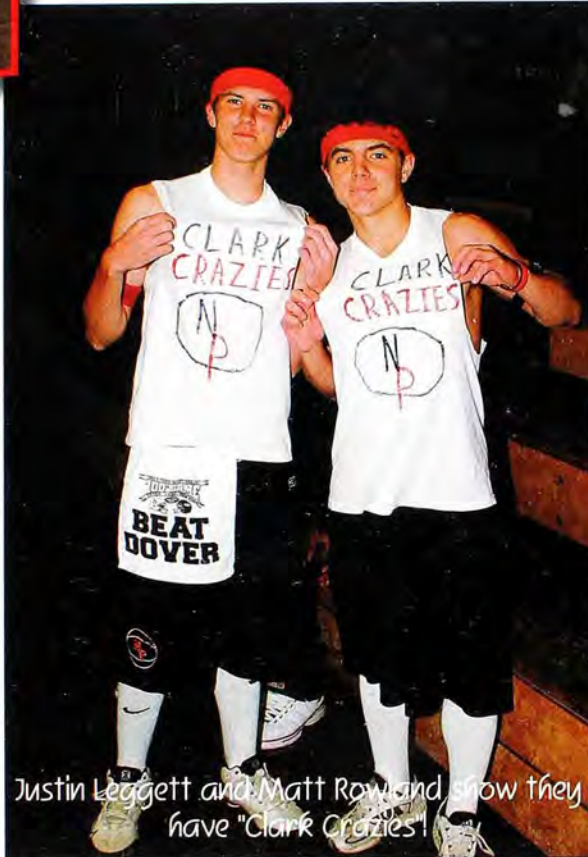

The Delphian Chorale came to life once more at the annual Phila/Dover pep rally with their rendition of "Rock You Tonight" by Firehouse. Some of the words in the song were "inappropriate" for the pep rally so they had to change them. In the instrumental Trey Overholt and Troy Parsons "rocked" the floor with their sweet moves. However, the chair that Trey sat on didn't cooperate when he kicked it and it clamped onto his foot. Trey made a great recovery and acted like nothing went wrong.

*"We gave Alex hints every week on who his secret seniors were."
- Sr Tara LaCroix and Brooke Stull.*

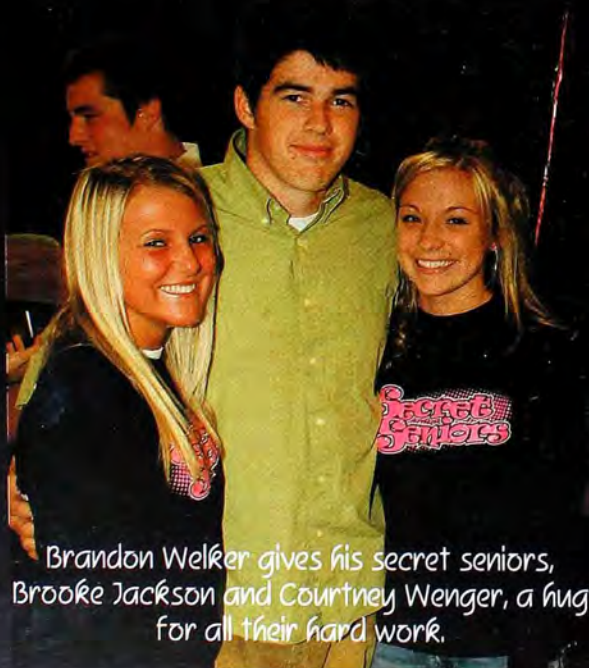

Once more the 3rd floor lockers came to life during the fall sports season. Thirty girls participated in decorating lockers and giving goodies every week to the boys who participated in a fall sport. Each week the girls would have to think up a new theme for the boys' locker. The boys enjoyed getting pampered by the girls every week. When the fall sports team played Dover, the girls would go to the boys' house and decorate their room. The girls tried to keep a secret about who they had, but of course, the boys all knew before their "secret senior" was revealed.

Sara Daley writes, "Love your Secret Seniors", on JR's locker as Toni Reidenbach looks on.

Khlea Sumani places one last picture on Ben's locker.

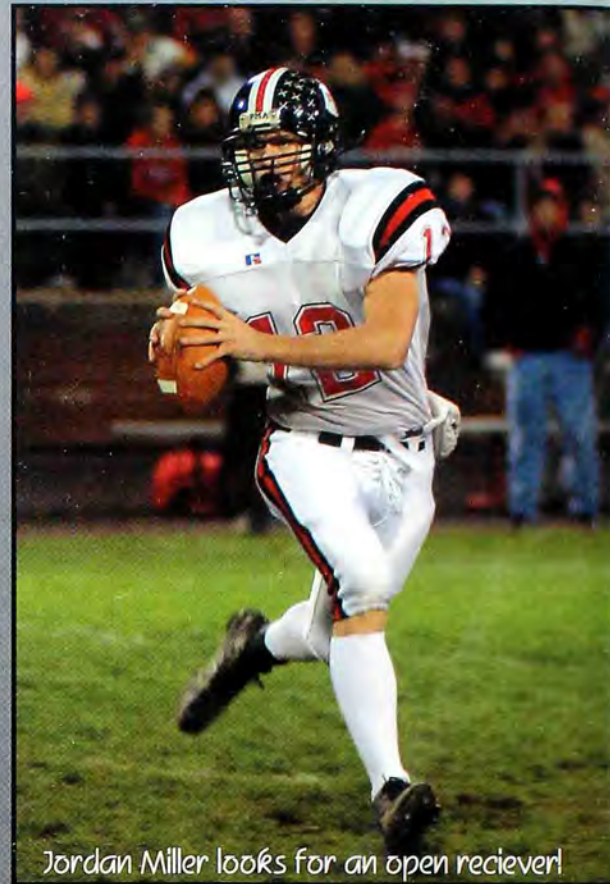

Joey Stephens is a stud with three hott babes: Julie Rest, Tasha Dummermuth, and Katie Meador, his secret seniors.

Justin and Matt watch us win the game but are so cold they can't move.

There were five captains, Richard, Ben, Brandt, Alex, and Cory, this year, but due to a rule Cory had to stay back 20 yards!

Jordan Miller looks for an open receiver!

Ben Behrman kicks the game winning field goal.

Brandt Smith struggles to keep on his feet!

Hallie cheers along with the cheerleaders.

At the end of the game, the scoreboard shows that once again Phila BEAT dover!

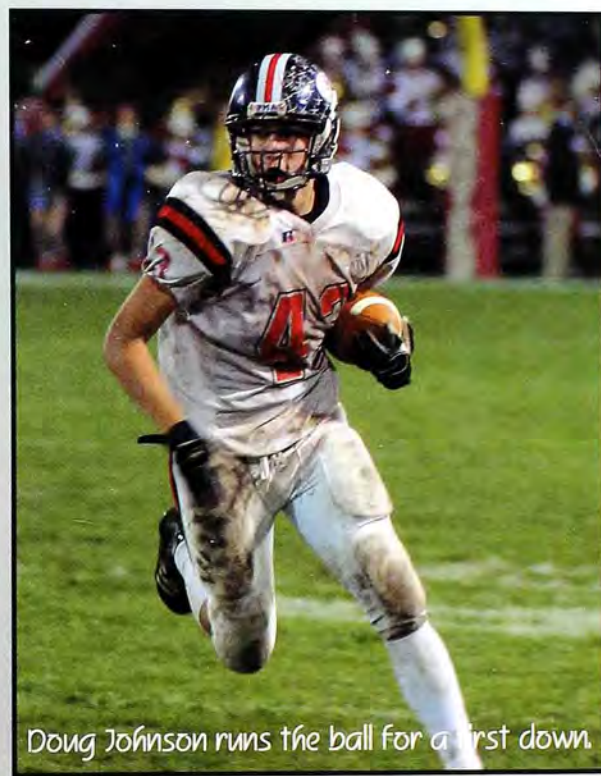

Wice as Nice

"Dover should have wished for a win!" - Sr. Richard Sandilands

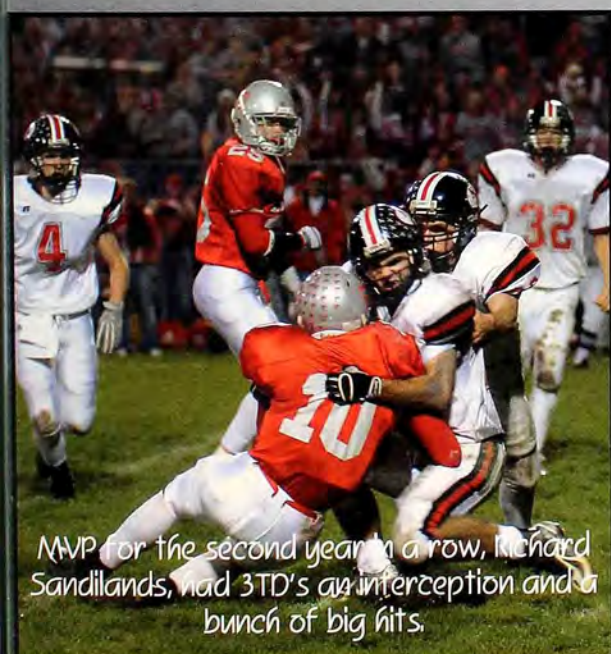

It was nice to beat Dover for a second time, especially when the game was held at Dover's Crater Stadium! Dover led 21-14 going into halftime, but Phila battled back during the fourth quarter! Due to Alex Meiser being injured, Jordan Miller started his first game at quarterback. The Quakers had a rush of adrenaline, with two first down catches putting the ball inside the five yard line. Ben Behrendt kicked an 18 yard field goal putting the Quakers ahead 31-28 with 30 seconds left on the clock. The last play of the game, Dover went for a Hail-Mary pass, but Richard Sandilands intercepted it! When the clock hit zero fans charged the field, excited that once again Phila beat Dover!

New Philadelphia destroys Dover in a merciless dog pile!

Doug Johnson runs the ball for a first down.

MVP for the second year in a row, Richard Sandilands, had 3TD's an interception and a bunch of big hits.

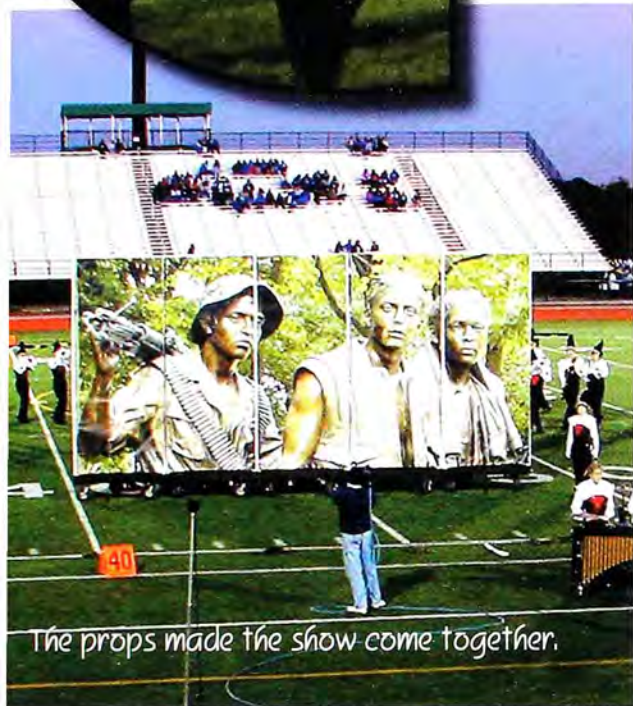

Dover supplied the smoke, but Phila's offense supplied the fire.

changes

"The band faced huge challenges, but hit a home run." - Mr. Furbay

The 2005 Marching Quaker Band saw changes in many ways. One major change occurred in the early days of June when Mr. Furbay became the head band director of the high school band program. Later in June the marching band welcomed forty new freshman into the band, as they began to prepare for the First Town Days parade. The band started to learn their competition show in August, and by September the band had constructed five twelve-foot tall panels that moved about the field during their performance, creating a new picture each song.

The props made the show come together.

The band enjoys their last competitive performance of the year at State Finals held at Dublin Coffman Stadium.

PITT: Samie Murch, Matt Torgler, Katie Berger, Justine Reiger, Zack Newman, Taylor Lewis, Ben Ballard, Kyle Spencer, Samantha Schwab, Audrey Lab

TUBAS: Brent Yarnell, Derek Swaldo, Ben Cameron

The band used five panels to emphasize their patriotic theme.

SAXOPHONES: Hal Tedrow, Ashley Eppley, Josh Cunningham, Travis Ballentine

Samie, Matt, Zack, and Ben are ready to play at the football game.

Freedom

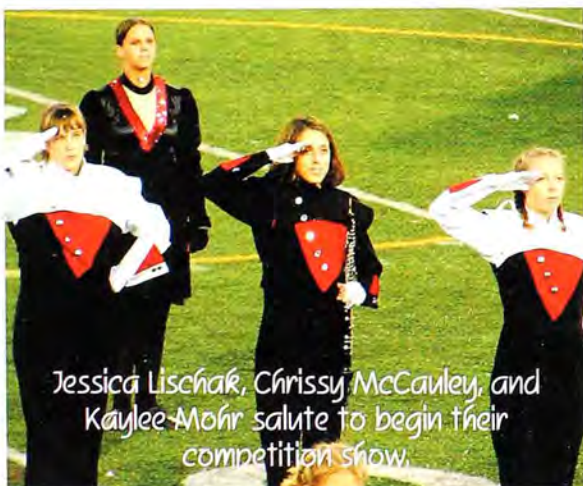

"It was great that our show touched the hearts of many people."

- Senior Chrissy McCauley

After several performances the marching band was approached by veterans who had been moved to tears. The marching band worked hard the entire season on their competition show entitled "Soldiers of the Wall." This show was dedicated to all Americans who have fought for freedom. Specifically, the show gave tribute to those who fought in Vietnam. The band received first place in class A at the competitions in which they competed, and they qualified for state at every performance.

Another Trip to State

The golf team had a great season with a return trip to State where they finished 8th. They won 7 out of 10 tournaments including the District (considered the toughest in the State). The team cruised through their dual meets undefeated and captured the ECOL title again. Matt Gowins, Ryan Vick, Cory Myers and Spenser Sulzener were all 1st Team ECOL along with other honors.

Junior Drew Hicks had an average of 46.2.

Blazing New Trails

The Guys helped build a new course with some alumni runners and parents. After years of being at the mercy of KSU or Buckeye it was great to actually have a course of their own. Winding through the proposed park at the South Side it was a true cross country course offering streams and hills to run. The boys had a great season as they went out with wins in the County Classic and E.C.O.L.

Going the Right way

The girls cross country team had a successful season by winning the league meet and making it to regionals. The most memorable meet though was the Tiffin Invitational. In the race the girls were entered in, the first 250 girls went the wrong way. Instead of taking a turn wide, they took a turn too sharp and ended up finishing instead of going around the course. The girls then had to go back to the turn they missed, which was about a half mile out of their way. After getting back on track, Haley Gasser ended up winning the invitational after having to pass the 100 girls who had went the right way.

Rachel runs hard.

Candice goes in for a strong finish.

Coach Giesey and Christina Hoover decide whether or not she should run.

Setting the

BAR

Throughout the season both teams had their ups and downs. Coach Kelly Miller set a goal for her team, the goal was for the JV team to go 13-6. The team achieved that goal by going exactly 13-6. The Freshmen team didn't set a goal, but they also went 13-6 for their season. The Freshmen this year got a new coach, Michelle Hawk. The Freshmen and JV seasons went just like their coaches wanted them to!

The girls ended with a record of 11-9.

Its All About UNITY

"The state of being one equals team unity", is what first year coach Mr. Sisson told the girls. For the first time having a girls soccer team, they started the 2005 season out great. With all the great coaching, and time put into soccer the girls became an unstoppable team. They ended the season with a 5-3-2 record.

Loving Our Opponents

For the second year in a row, the girls grabbed the E.C.O.L. championship. The Lady Quakers went on a 13-0 streak for the first time in many years. Under the second year coaching of Jim Amick, the Quakers ended their season with a 14-4 record, and were 5-1 in the E.C.O.L. The girls also placed third at the Dover Invitational and second at the Lancaster Invite. Senior Annie Worth qualified for Districts and made first team E.C.O.L. When asked how it felt to be a part of the successful team, junior Megan Hardin said "I had a lot of fun this year, it was a very memorable season."

PERFECT RECORDS

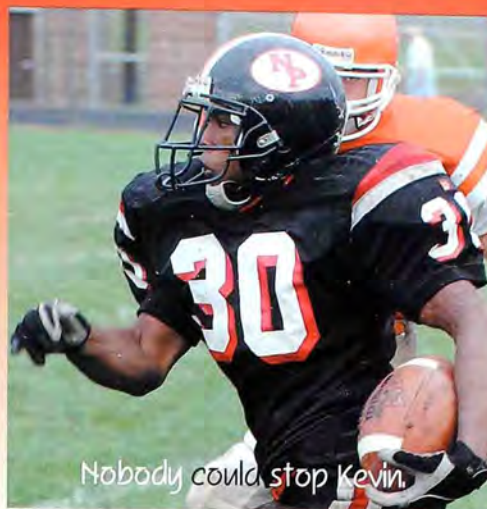

During their seasons both the JV and Freshman football teams had perfect records. The JV team went undefeated in the league and the Freshman team didn't win one game. The JV's aired it out with Jordan Miller at QB, out scoring all of their league opponents. Without standout Tyler Dummermuth, who was moved to varsity, and with a rash of injuries, it was a long year for the freshmen.

ECOL Champs Again

The varsity football team got off to a great start, winning their first game against Indian Creek, 20-13. The Quakers continued their winning streak for the next six weeks. Unfortunately, Cambridge put up a tough game, and beat the Quakers 31-27. That didn't stop them from continuing their great season, the Quakers Beat Dover, 31-28, earning the title of ECOL Champs, and giving them a spot in the State Playoffs.

What A Rocky Road

The New Philadelphia Freshmen Boys Basketball Team had a 5-10 overall record. The team struggled since a few freshman moved to JV and varsity, however that gave the other freshman a chance to play. The JV on the other hand had a great 16-3 season, with leading scorers Jordan Miller and Vinnie Granato. Although the JV team was mostly made of sophomores, they still came out with a big win against Dover.

Monica is ready at 1st Base.

Brooke gets set to pitch a fastball down the middle of the plate.

Amanda Boone is ready to field the grounder.

Lacey fields a grounder out in center field.

Regional Bound

Following a second place in the league and two tough losses to Dover the softball team went on a run. They won the district and lost a heartbreaker in the Regional semi-final game. It was the first trip to the Regionals in eight years for the Quakers.

Karie tosses the ball after getting a top fly.

Congratulations Class of 2006!

The Infield says a quick cheer before the game begins.

Kayla throws the ball to first from second base.

Marah Robinson swings at a high ball but misses.

Junior Rachel Dorsey catches the pitch, while the umpire calls it a strike.

Sara Daley puts some emotion into her throw.

Danny Carbaugh hits back to his opponent.

Fourth year letter winner Adam Patterson digs for the ball.

Mickey shows off his forehand.

Corey Troyer and Drew Ayers work together doubles match.

Ian Lundholm waits for his match to start.

Mickey Zimmerman and Logan Schmidt await the serve.

Fresh Start

With the addition of new head coach, Mr. Denham and Korean exchange student Bemjin Kim, the boys tennis team had high expectations for the year. They ended their season with a 10-6 record and a second place finish in the ECOL. Bemjin Kim was awarded the Most Valuable Player award, while the coach's award went to Ben Roth.

Jared Carbaugh keeps his eye on the ball.

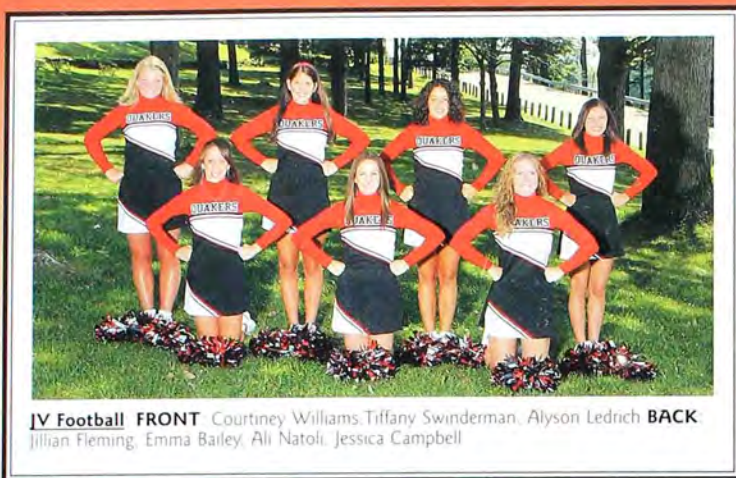

BOYS TENNIS: FRONT: Taylor Barnett, Logan Schmidt, Bemjin Kim, Jared Carbaugh, Mickey Zimmerman. ROW2: Chris Kalp, Tim Danko, Corey Troyer, Dan Carbaugh, Josh Jenkins, Garren Smith, Ian Lundholm. BACK: Coach Denham, Drew Ayers, Joe Outman, Adam Patterson, Bill Gray, Drew Hicks, Ben Roth, Coach Carbaugh.

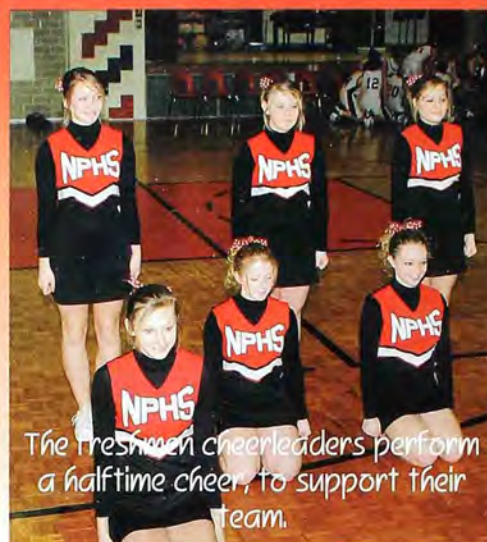

Ben Roth works hard to get the ball over the net.

JV Football FRONT Courtney Williams, Tiffany Swinderman, Alyson Ledrich BACK Jillian Fleming, Emma Bailey, Ali Natoli, Jessica Campbell

The freshman cheerleaders perform a half-time cheer, to support their team.

Walking to get her pom-poms, Courtney Williams keeps her head in the game.

"Go Quakers Go."

"We're #1!"

The JV basketball cheerleaders get fired up for the game.

Jessica Campbell makes a tight formation on the ground.

Pump up the Spirit

The JV and Freshman squads showed us just how much spirit they had through the football and basketball seasons. Both the Freshman and JV cheerleaders attended a private camp known as COA held during the summer at the Quaker Dome. They both received several spirit awards and also learned how to mount. At E.C.O.L. the Freshman placed 2nd and JV placed 5th.

Freshman Basketball: FRONT: Courtney Garbrandt, Brittney Bigler, Kelly Gundy, Emily Frantz, Jaclyn Wills, Carly Poorman, Chelsea Grove, Kirstin Powell, Courtney Carlisle

Markkie Thomas, along with the rest of the squad, try to pump up the football players.

Emma Bailey ponders over the game.

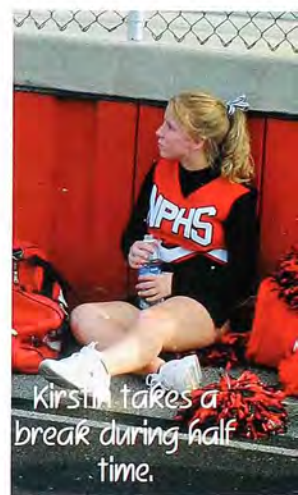

Freshmen Football: FRONT: Carly Poorman, Kirstin Powell, Courtney Garbrandt
ROW2: Courtney Carlisle, Markkie Thomas ROW3: Chelsie Grove, Kelly Gundy BACK: Emily Frantz, Jaclyn Willis

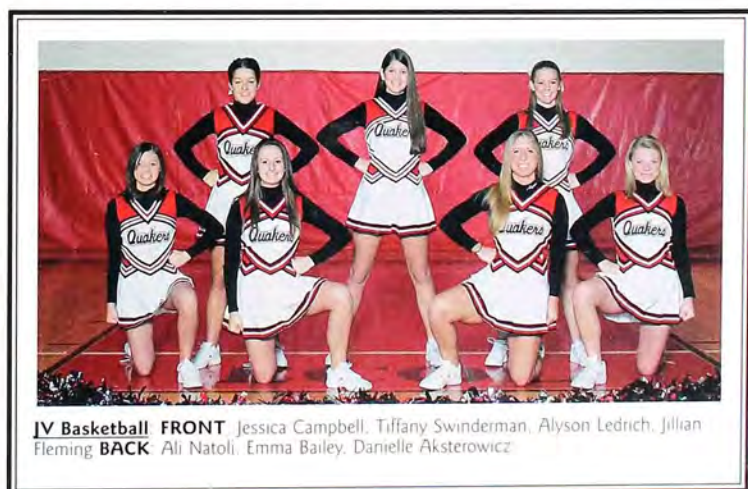

Alyson Ledrich gets ready to throw her football in the crowd.

Kelly sets up a cheer.

JV Basketball FRONT Jessica Campbell, Tiffany Swinderman, Alyson Ledrich, Jillian Fleming BACK Ali Natoli, Emma Bailey, Danielle Aksterowicz

Lets Get ready to Tumble

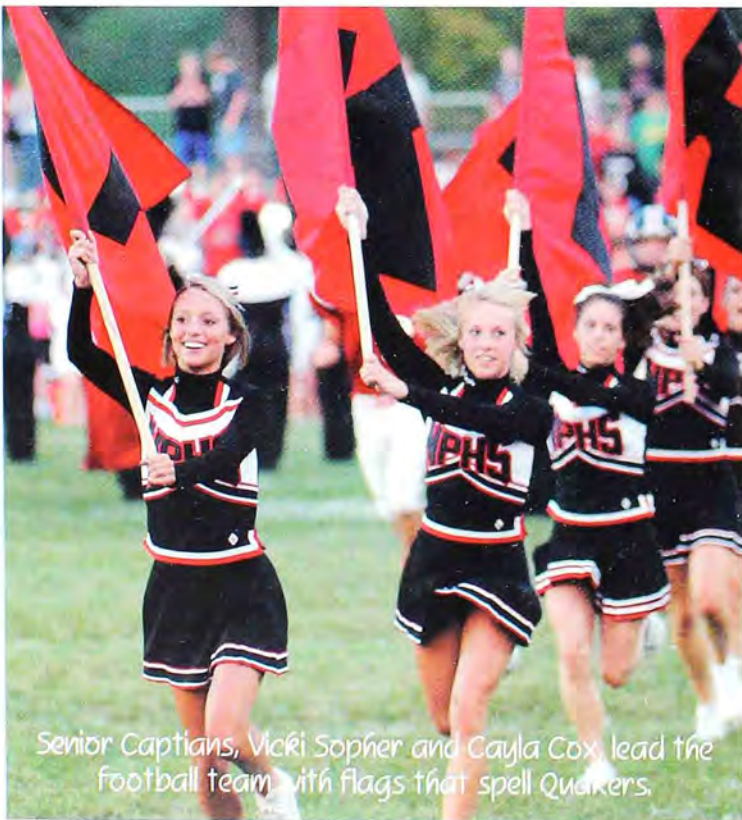

The varsity cheerleaders were full of spirit during the fall and winter sports seasons. Cheering on the football team and boys basketball team, the girls were very busy. They spent many hours making up and practicing their E.C.O.L. competition cheer, chant, and dance. The girls placed 3rd at E.C.O.L. During the boys basketball season the girls would tumble during the time outs! The tumbling was an amazing site.

TEAM NAME: FRONT: Abby Ayers, Vicki Sopher, Brook Mathias, Cayla Cox. ROW2: Kylie Westfall, Brittany Pipes, Alison Laughlin. BACK: Breanna Zion, Olivia Levensgood, Brie Walsh.

Senior Captain, Brook Mathias, does the power cheer during halftime of the phila/ dover home basketball game.

Senior Captains, Vicki Sopher and Cayla Cox, lead the football team with flags that spell Quakers.

The football cheerleaders gather for a picture at the Phila/ Dover game for one last picture with their seniors.

Jamie Emery show us an amazing toe touch.

Vicki Sopher, Cayla Cox, Brie Walsh, and Breanna Zion gather to watch the 2nd half of the basketball game.

Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders do the infamous B-E-A-S-T in a box cheer.

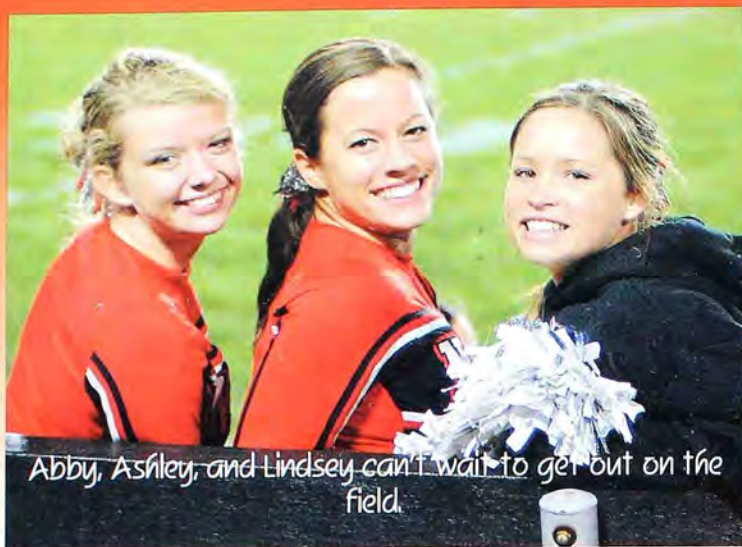

During the Phila/ Dover pep rally, the cheerleaders do their hello cheer.

Junior Alison Laughlin concentrates on the power cheer.

TEAM NAME: FRONT: Abby Ayers, Vicki Sopher, Cayla Cox, Brook Mathias, Jamie Emery. BACK: Kylie Westfall, Breanna Zion, Olivia Levegood, Brie Walsh, Alison Laughlin.

Abby, Ashley, and Lindsey can't wait to get out on the field.

QT DANCE TEAM: FRONT: Laura Schupbach, Julie Rest, Haley Gasser, Molly Weisgarber, Lindsey Lindenbaum, Abby Brown, Tara Lacroix, Hallie Wendling. ROW2: Katie Meo, Darcie Bichsel, Lora Burton, Ashley Amstutz. ROW3: Katie Warner, Lacey Herbert, Kirstin Parker, Devin Conkin, Lindsey Merryman. BACK: Chelsea Amstutz, Peyton Goodie, Emily Bichsel.

As a senior, Katie Meo is very serious before she goes out and dances.

Laura is very distracted by the game.

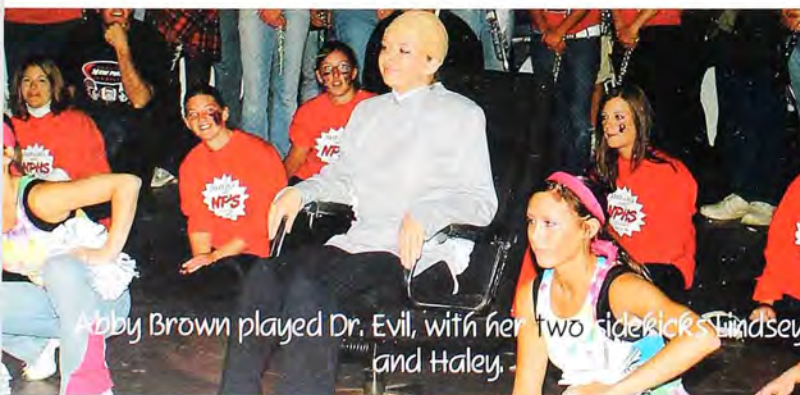

The QT's style their hats, before they go out and dance at a home basketball game.

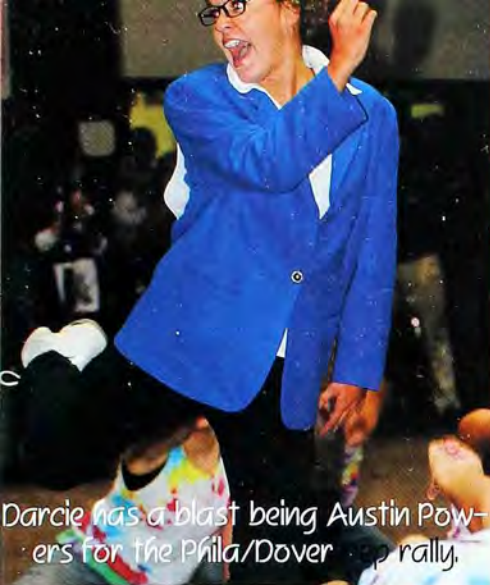

Some senior QT's have a blast doing a kick line with Goody's.

Dr. Evil (Abby) and Austin Powers (Darcie) unite to do a kick line with the rest of the QT's.

Abby Brown played Dr. Evil, with her two sidekicks Lindsey and Haley.

Darcie has a blast being Austin Powers for the Phila/Dover rally.

A wish for Nationals

The QT's continued to impress the audiences with their outstanding performances. They had the opportunity to go to Florida for Nationals! The girls also got a wish from the TV show "Three Wishes." Their wish was to get a choreographer for Nationals! Even though they didn't use any of the choreographer's moves, it was still a good experience. At state, the QT's placed first in the pom division.

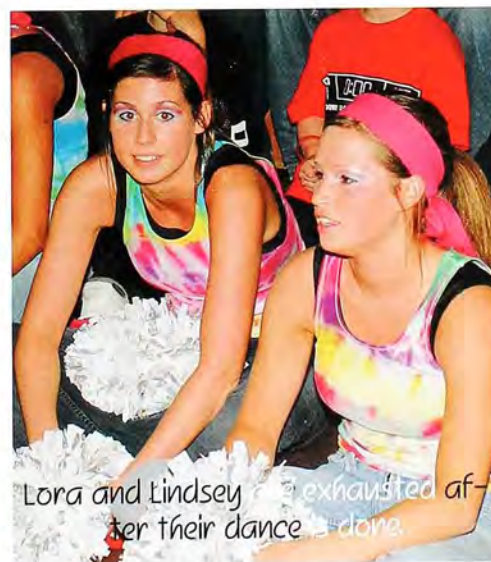

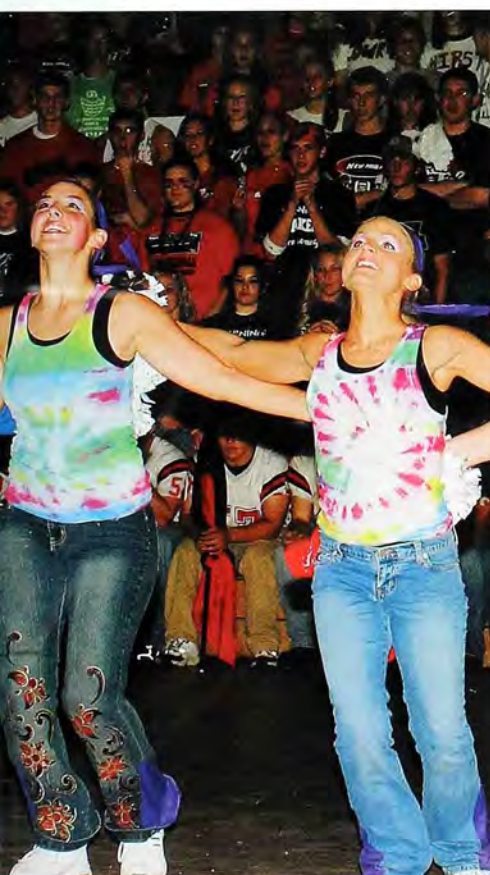

Some QT's wish couldn't resist the green power ranger.

Katie, Molly, and Lindsey mess around before they have to go out and be serious on the field.

The QT's qualified to go to Nationals in Florida.

Lora and Lindsey exhausted after their dance is done.

Not even rain could keep the QT's from having a little fun while in Florida.

Members of student council, German club, French club and Art club all participated in their annual events. Student council organized the student/staff volleyball game and also created new events, including mini-spirit week and the walk-a-thon for Lindsey Parrish. Art club planned several murals to be painted on the walls around the school. President Kara Trombulak informed the members about a mural to also be painted in downtown New Phila. French club members participated in the annual Christmas party and Mardi Gras party. Each group's members made it their task to become involved with the school and society.

National Honor Society started off the year by gathering school supplies for a school in Africa. They also sold I-Flurtz to help connect people for true love during the Valentine's Day season. In April, they were very busy, because they were starting to prepare for the tapping of the new inductees. After the new inductees were tapped, in late April there was a ceremony for them and their parents. To award the seniors on their excellence during their four years of high school, the seniors took a trip to eat breakfast at Dutch Valley and then they went bowling.

After their sophomore year many students took advantage of Buckeye Career Center. At Buckeye students had the opportunity to train in the career of their choice. It prepared them for future study in a technical field or to step right out of school and go to work. One option several students choose was to go to Buckeye Career Center part of the day and return to NPHS for academic courses.

Success

The symphonic band worked hard during the winter to prepare for district contest. On March 10, 2006, their hard work paid off. The band received excellent ratings at contest. The winter guard, Kaleidoscope, also found success in 2006. In their first competition they placed first out of eleven groups with their show "Mimicry," and their successes continued throughout their season. Drumline had a rough start, changing show themes multiple times, but finally chose a show called "The Color of Emotion," which turned out to be a hit among the judges.

A year of Memories!

Great sports, great spirit, and a great senior class added up to a great year. It was a year in which school pride rose to new heights. It was a year of good byes to favorite teachers and principals and to old friends. Memories of our years together of who we were and who we had lost. Dreams of where we were going and what lied ahead.

After a long career Principal Rick Sattler moved on to

"Greener" Pastures

After thirty five years in the New Philadelphia Schools Rick Sattler decided it was time for a different challenge and retired as high school principal. From leading the varsity baseball team to State as the head coach, to leading NPHS to become a school of excellence Rick always had students as his top priority. Although he will be missed, we are sure you will find him on a golf course somewhere either playing or caddying for his son Blake.
